- 3. Some events may not be material at present but may be having material impact in future.*

Note:

The risk factors as envisaged by the management along with the proposals to address the risk if any. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial implication of any of the risks described in this section.

In this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, any discrepancies in any table between total and the sums of the amount listed are due to rounding off. Any percentage amounts, as set forth in “Risk Factors” beginning on page 24 and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operations” beginning on page 244 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus unless otherwise indicated, has been calculated on the basis of the amount disclosed in the “Restated Financial Statements”.

Till date we have good relation with our customers. We cannot guarantee that we will continue to generate the same volume of business, or any business, from them, and the loss of one or more key customers could adversely affect our revenue and operational results.

That said, the composition of our customer base and the revenue derived from them may evolve as we add new customers as part of our normal business activities. While we are confident in our ability to maintain strong relationships with existing customers and approach new ones, we cannot assure that these relationships will endure long-term or that new customers will be secured promptly.

2. The company relies on a limited number of suppliers for product procurement, and the loss of any key supplier could impact our business operations.

Till date we have good relation with our Suppliers. We cannot guarantee that we will continue to receive the same volume and quality of supplies, or any supplies at all, from these suppliers. The loss of one or more key suppliers could adversely impact our stock procurement, revenue, and operational results.

However, the composition and volume of purchases from these suppliers may change as we actively seek new suppliers to improve quality and pricing in the normal course of business. While we are confident in our ability to maintain strong relationships with existing suppliers and identify new ones, we cannot assure that these relationships will endure long-term or that new suppliers will be secured in a timely manner.

3. Our Company has reported certain negative cash flows from its operating activity, investing activity and financing activity, details of which are given below. Sustained negative cash flows could impact our growth and business.

4. Our dependence on raw material procurement from a single state exposes us to operational and financial risks.

Our Company procures 100% of its raw material requirements, such as wheat, chana dal, maize kernel from the state of Madhya Pradesh. This geographical concentration exposes us to risks arising from adverse developments specific to the region, including but not limited to changes in state government policies, local supply chain disruptions, natural calamities such as droughts or floods, crop failures, labour strikes, or logistical bottlenecks. At present, we do not have established alternative sourcing arrangements outside Madhya Pradesh. Consequently, any disruption in the availability, quality, or pricing of raw materials within the state could materially affect our ability to procure raw materials in a timely and cost-effective manner. In addition, commodity prices in the local mandis and through local traders are subject to volatility due to factors such as seasonal fluctuations, demand-supply imbalances, government interventions, or policy changes, which could increase our raw material costs. Such risks may result in production delays, increased operating costs, reduced margins, or an inability to meet customer demand, which in turn could adversely affect our business operations, financial performance, and growth prospects.

5. Wheat, Chana Dal, Maize Kernel and their flours require controlled storage conditions, and any inadequacies in storage may lead to spoilage, infestation, or loss of product value, which could materially affect our operations and financial results.

Our operations depend heavily on the proper storage of wheat, chana dal, maize kernel and their flours, both of which require strict environmental controls to maintain quality, safety, and usability. Wheat, chana dal, maize kernels must be stored at specific temperature and moisture levels to prevent spoilage, mold growth, and mycotoxin formation, while flour is highly susceptible to moisture absorption, insect infestation, microbial contamination, and deterioration of functional properties such as protein integrity and baking performance. Any deviation from required storage conditions—whether due to inadequate infrastructure, equipment malfunction, power outages, human error, or extreme weather events—can result in partial or complete loss of stored inventory.

We maintain warehouses where large volumes of raw material and finished goods are held for extended periods. Failures in these facilities, including breakdowns in ventilation systems, humidity controls, fumigation protocols, pest management measures, or temperature monitoring equipment, may compromise product integrity. External factors, such as changes in climate conditions, prolonged heat waves, or unseasonal humidity, could increase the risk of moisture absorption or mold growth in both wheat, chana dal, maize kernel and their flours. In addition, the agricultural supply chain is inherently susceptible to pests such as beetles, moths, rodents, and other vectors. Any lapse in sanitation, structural maintenance, or fumigation may result in widespread infestation. Poor or inconsistent storage can also lead to quality degradation that may not be immediately visible but becomes apparent during processing or customer use, potentially resulting in rejected batches, returns, or customer complaints. Such incidents can disrupt production schedules, increase wastage, elevate reprocessing costs, and negatively impact our reputation for quality and reliability. In severe cases, contaminated or spoiled wheat, chana dal, maize kernels or flours may necessitate product recalls, regulatory interventions, and disposal costs, all of which can materially affect our financial performance. If we fail to maintain stringent storage conditions or to respond promptly to storage-related risks, our operations, supply continuity, customer relationships, and financial results could be adversely and materially affected.

6. Changing consumer behaviour and preference for alternative grain based products may adversely affect our existing product portfolio and market position.

Consumer preferences in the food and flour industry are evolving rapidly due to increasing health awareness, lifestyle changes, and a growing inclination toward differentiated and value-added food products. While traditional wheat flour continues to be widely consumed, customers are increasingly shifting toward products such as whole wheat flour, multigrain blends, high-fiber or high-protein variants, organic flour, and specialty flours made from alternative grains such as millets, oats, and quinoa. A significant shift in customer consumption patterns away from conventional wheat flour toward these substitutes, or toward ready-to-cook and ready-to-eat products that may not rely on our offerings, could adversely affect the demand for our existing product portfolio.

Institutional customers, including bakeries, FMCG companies, food processors, wholesalers, and retailers, are also increasingly demanding consistent quality, customized flour specifications, improved shelf life, and hygienically packaged products. If we are unable to continuously upgrade our processes, enhance product quality, or introduce new variants that align with these evolving requirements, we may face challenges in retaining key customers or securing new business.

Customer preferences are also influenced by trends promoted through digital media, health influencers, and government initiatives encouraging the consumption of alternative grains, such as the promotion of millets as a healthier staple. If such trends accelerate, demand for traditional wheat-based products may decline, potentially impacting our sales volumes and financial performance. Further, consumption patterns may fluctuate based on macroeconomic conditions, changing household spending habits, rising preference for convenience foods, and shifts toward premium or specialized flour categories. If our company is unable to effectively predict and respond to such changes, or if competitors are more successful in capturing emerging segments, our business prospects, revenues, and profitability may be materially and adversely affected.

7. Variations in quality of raw materials may adversely affect overall quality of our product.

Our business depends significantly on the consistent availability of high-quality raw materials such as wheat, chana (gram), and maize. The quality of these agricultural commodities is subject to substantial variation due to multiple factors including climatic conditions, soil fertility, crop management practices, harvesting methods, storage infrastructure, exposure to pests, moisture levels, and supply chain handling. Variations in key quality parameters such as grain size, moisture, protein content, gluten strength (for wheat), hardness (for gram and maize), foreign impurities, and presence of mycotoxins or other contaminants can directly impact the quality, yield, and consistency of our finished products.

Agricultural commodities sourced from different regions and seasons often exhibit significant heterogeneity, which increases the complexity of processing and quality control. Poor-quality or inconsistent raw material batches may result in higher wastage, reduced milling efficiency, lower output yields, and increased processing costs. Furthermore, failure to segregate, clean, or process raw materials adequately may result in deviation from required product specifications, potentially leading to product rejections, customer complaints, or returns. In addition, fluctuations in raw material quality can impact the nutritional profile, texture, colour, taste, and functional characteristics of the final products, such as wheat flour, besan, maize flour, semolina, bran, or by-products used for feed. Any inability to maintain consistent output due to raw material variations may adversely affect customer satisfaction, repeat orders, and long-term business relationships.

While we implement quality checks at procurement, handling, storage, and processing stages, these measures may not fully mitigate the risk of adulteration, improper grading at source, or supply chain contamination—including pesticide residues, fungal growth, aflatoxins in maize or gram, or moisture-induced spoilage. Any discovery of substandard quality or contamination in our raw material or finished goods may necessitate product recalls, reprocessing, or destruction of inventory, which may adversely impact our costs and profitability.

Further, if competitors are able to secure better-quality raw materials or maintain more consistent product standards, our market position could be weakened. There can be no assurance that we will always be able to procure raw materials of the desired quality at competitive prices or in adequate quantities. Any significant deviation in raw material quality may materially and adversely affect our production efficiency, brand reputation, financial results, and overall business operations.

8. We depend on a limited number of States for a significant portion of our revenue from operations. The loss of any of our major customer in these States due to any adverse development or significant reduction in business from our major customer may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects.

We derive our revenue from domestic regions. However, we derive a large portion of our revenue from the state of Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Karnataka, and Gujarat. The state wise bifurcation of revenue from operation for the period ended July 31, 2025 and financial years ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023 is as under:

If the economic conditions of these states become volatile or uncertain or the conditions in the financial market deteriorate, or if there are any changes in laws applicable to our industry or if any restrictive conditions are imposed on us or our business, there will be a severe impact on the financial condition of our business. Further, the ultimate customers located in this geography may reduce or postpone their spending significantly which would adversely affect our operations and financial conditions.

9. If our Company is unable to protect its intellectual property, or if our Company infringes on the intellectual property rights of others, our business may be adversely affected.

Our Company is currently using  and  logo, which is not yet registered in the name of our Company. While, we have made applications for registering the name and logo of our Company, however the application is pending for approval. If we are unable to get the same registered with the trademark authorities then, our Company may not be able to successfully enforce or protect our intellectual property rights and obtain statutory protections available under the Trademarks Act, 1999, as otherwise available for registered trademarks in future could have a material adverse effect on our business and goodwill, which in turn could adversely affect our results of operations. There can be no assurance that third parties will not infringe upon our intellectual property, causing damage to our business prospects, reputation and goodwill. Our efforts to protect our intellectual property may not be adequate and may lead to erosion of our business value and our operations could be adversely affected. We may need to litigate in order to determine the validity of such claims and the scope of the proprietary rights of others. Any such litigation could be time consuming and costly and the outcome cannot be guaranteed. We may not be able to detect any unauthorized use or take appropriate and timely steps to enforce or protect its intellectual property, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Business Overview” and “Government and Other Approvals” beginning on page no. 134 and 266, respectively of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

10. Our Registered Office, Processing Unit and Warehouses from where we operate is not owned by us but taken on Lease basis. Our inability to renew the lease agreement or any adverse impact on the title or ownership rights of our owner/landlord in relation to these premises may impede our operations.

Our Registered Office, Processing Unit and Warehouses as disclosed under the chapter titled as “Business Overview” on page no. 134, from where we operate is on the premises that has been taken on lease basis. Upon expiration of the agreement, we will be required to negotiate the terms and conditions. Our lease agreement is renewable on mutually acceptable terms and upon payment of such rent escalations as stated in the lease agreement. Any delay or non-payment of rent may result in vacation of the property. In the event that we are required to vacate our current premises, we would be required to make alternate arrangements for our infrastructure and there can be no assurance that the new arrangements will be on commercially acceptable terms. Further, relocation of any part of our operations may cause disruptions to our business and may require significant expenditure. If we are required to relocate our business operations, we may suffer a disruption in our operations or have to pay increased charges, which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

11. Disruptions or inefficiencies in our supply chain and logistics network may adversely affect our operations and financial performance.

We rely on an extensive and coordinated supply chain to procure raw materials, store inventory, maintain adequate production schedules, and deliver finished flour products to customers. Any disruption or inefficiency in this network may have a material adverse effect on our operations, profitability, and ability to meet customer expectations. Our supply chain depends on multiple external and internal factors, including the timely availability of raw material from farmers or traders, efficient operation of transportation providers, adequate storage capacity, and uninterrupted functioning of our milling facilities. Adverse weather conditions, poor harvests, changes in government procurement policies, natural disasters, or geopolitical events may impact our ability to source raw material in a timely and cost-effective manner.

Transportation constraints—including fuel price volatility, truck shortages, labour strikes, road closures, and congestion at ports, railheads, or distribution hubs—can delay both inbound raw materials and outbound shipments of finished goods. Furthermore, the supply chain for wheat-based products is sensitive to market seasonality, demand surges from downstream sectors, and competition for logistics capacity during peak agricultural periods. Any inefficiencies in operational planning, inventory management, or coordination with suppliers and super stockiest may result in stockouts, excess inventory, increased working capital requirements, or higher logistics expenses. We also rely on third-party transporters over whom we have limited control; disruptions in their operations or financial instability could impair our ability to fulfill orders.

If we are unable to effectively manage supply chain disruptions or adapt to sudden changes in logistics conditions, we may experience production downtime, delayed deliveries, reduced customer satisfaction, contractual penalties, loss of market share, and adverse impacts on our financial performance. Persistent or severe disruptions can also hinder our ability to plan future procurement and sales strategies, negatively affecting our long-term growth prospects.

12. Our Manufacturing facility relies on specialized machinery and any significant breakdown or delay in maintenance could disrupt our production

Our manufacturing operations are highly dependent on the continuous and efficient functioning of specialized machinery and equipment used in the production of our products. The efficient operation of these machines is critical to maintaining product quality, ensuring timely fulfilment of orders, and achieving cost efficiencies. Any significant breakdown, malfunction, or technical failure of this machinery, whether due to wear and tear, inadequate maintenance, power supply interruptions, or other unforeseen causes, could result in production stoppages or reduced output. In addition, delays in obtaining spare parts, engaging qualified technicians, or completing necessary repairs could further prolong such disruptions. A prolonged and unexpected interruption may not only lead to financial losses due to unutilized capacity but may also result in supply shortages, delayed deliveries, and potential loss of customer trust. While we undertake regular maintenance and quality checks to minimize such risks, there can be no assurance that unexpected equipment failures will not occur. Furthermore, as technology evolves, our existing machinery may become obsolete, requiring substantial capital expenditure for replacement or upgrades.

Accordingly, any significant breakdown or delay in the maintenance of our specialized machinery could have a material adverse effect on our production capabilities, business operations, financial condition, and results of operations.

13. Our business operations are subject to fluctuations in raw material prices.

Our operations are significantly dependent on the availability and cost of raw materials such as wheat, maize and chana dal. The prices of these raw materials are subject to volatility due to factors beyond our control, including global commodity price trends, changes in supply-demand dynamics, climatic conditions, government policies, trade restrictions, and currency exchange rate fluctuations. Our company relies on third-party suppliers for sourcing the raw materials necessary for manufacturing our products. We are exposed to price fluctuations and potential unavailability of these raw materials, particularly as we generally do not enter into long-term supply agreements with our suppliers. A significant portion of our requirements is met through the spot market, leaving us unable to control the factors influencing the cost of raw materials. Additionally, we face challenges in offsetting or passing on such cost increases to our customers. Rising prices of raw materials may impact our margins and profitability, adversely affecting our business, financial condition, and operational results.

Although we benefit from favourable terms with suppliers in both pricing and availability, any inability to secure high-quality raw materials in a timely and cost-effective manner could disrupt our production or trade cycles and delay delivery schedules, potentially leading to customer losses and reduced revenues.

14. We have working capital requirements. If we experience insufficient cash flows to make required payments on our debt or fund working capital requirements, there may be an adverse effect on our results of operations.

The business of our Company is working capital intensive. The successful operation of our business relies on significant working capital, which is essential for various aspects, including financing project operations, inventory management, and the purchase of raw materials and may continue to do so in future also. However, changes in credit terms and payment delays can adversely impact our working capital, resulting in lower cash flows and increased funding requirements. Inadequate financing of our working capital needs may arise due to several factors, such as delays in disbursements under financing arrangements, higher interest rates, increased insurance costs, or borrowing and lending restrictions. Such circumstances could have a material adverse effect on our overall business, financial condition, and prospects.

The performance of our business operations is contingent upon our capacity to proficiently handle our inventories and trade receivables. Our ability to appropriately assess our clients' creditworthiness and make sure they receive appropriate terms and conditions to maintain our business connection with them is essential to managing our trade receivables successfully. But if our management doesn't fairly assess the terms and conditions we have with our clients, it could result in bad debt write-offs and/or delays in recoveries, which could cause a liquidity constraint and negatively impact our operations and business. A shortage of liquidity could also lead to greater borrowing costs for working capital and, as a result, higher financing costs, both of which would affect our profitability. Our inability to maintain sufficient cash flow, credit facilities, and other funding sources in a timely manner, or to satisfy working capital requirements and settle debts, may have a negative impact on our financial situation and operational outcomes. We could not be able to sustain current sales level, which would have a negative impact on our financial health, if we are unable to collect our debt from our trade receivables or sell our inventory.

For further details of working capital requirements, please refer to the chapter titled "Object of the Issue" beginning on page 79 of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

15. *There are certain delays in filing forms with the RoC under the provisions of Companies Act, 2013. Any penalty or action taken by any regulatory authorities in future for non-compliance with provisions of relevant act could impact the financial position of the Company to that extent.

In the past, there have been some instances of delays in filing forms/returns with ROC with respect to certain provision of statutory regulations applicable to us such as:

The statutory authorities have not imposed any penalties other than the additional fees payable for delayed filing of statutory forms and there are no legal proceedings or regulatory action initiated against our Company in relation to such discrepancies in filing statutory forms with the RoC as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Also, there are no non-compliances/delayed compliances of the company which require adjudication/ compounding/ regularization. While we remain committed to full compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and take all reasonable steps to ensure the same, we cannot assure you that such legal proceedings or regulatory actions will not be initiated against our Company in future and we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to penalties imposed by concerned regulatory authorities in this respect. Therefore, if the authorities impose monetary penalties on us or take certain punitive actions against our Company in relation to the same, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Further, to ensure that the above delayed filings will not occur in future, we have taken the following steps i.e. appointed a whole-time Company Secretary to oversee and ensure accurate and timely filings and compliance and implement a Maker-Checker policy to ensure the accuracy and correctness of all submissions.

16. *There have been instances of delayed filings in the past with certain regulatory authorities with respect to filings related to GST returns, TDS dues and TCS dues. If the regulatory authorities impose any monetary penalties on us or take any punitive actions against our Company in relation to the same, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

There have been instances of delayed filings in the past with certain regulatory authorities with respect to filings related to GST returns, TDS dues and TCS dues. As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, there have been no penalties levied on our Company for such delays. However, it cannot be assured that even in future no such delay will happen or no such penalty will be levied. Therefore, if the regulatory authorities impose any monetary penalties on us or take certain punitive actions against our Company in relation to the same, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected. We cannot assure you that such delayed compliances will not happen in the future and that our Company will not be subject to any action by statutory or regulatory authorities, which may adversely affect our operating margins and consequentially, business, financial condition and results of operations.

Non-compliance with regulatory requirements can have significant financial and operational consequences for the Company. Failure to meet filing deadlines often results in financial penalties, late fees, and interest charges, increasing the Company's compliance costs and impacting cash flow. Additionally, regulatory authorities may scrutinize the Company's records, leading to audits, investigations, and possible legal proceedings, which further strain financial resources and management bandwidth. Moreover, rectifying past non-compliance requires additional administrative efforts, legal consultations, and resource allocations, adding to the overall compliance burden. Furthermore, reputational damage arising from non-compliance can erode stakeholder confidence, affecting relationships with customers, suppliers, and business partners.

The previous delays in filing return of statutory dues are as under which are as per certificate dated December 1, 2025, issued by M/s. Bakliwal & Co., Chartered Accountants, the statutory and peer review auditor of our Company:

17. There have been instances of non-deposit of certain statutory dues i.e. ESIC. Any cognizance being taken by respective authorities on non-compliance in payment of statutory obligations may result in penalties, interest liabilities, or regulatory actions, which could adversely impact our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our Company is required to pay certain statutory dues i.e. employee state insurance contributions under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948. In relation to this, our Company was required to register under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 once the employee count exceeded 10 employees. The Company obtained the ESIC registration in December 2023. Further, the Company is yet to make payment towards ESIC contributions in previous years as required under applicable state law. The said delay is due to technical error on digital platform of ESIC for accepting previous year payments. Currently, the Company has been making efforts to pay ESIC and to that effect a letter asking for guidance has been submitted with relevant authority. As on date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, no response has been received on said letter. However, the Company has regularized the payment towards ESIC contribution from November 2025 onwards. In case of any cognizance being taken by the respective authorities, our Company may be subject to penalties, interest liabilities or demands for retrospective contributions, which could adversely impact our financial condition and cash flows. For details, please refer to chapter titled "Government and Other Approvals" beginning on page 266 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

18. We are dependent on our Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel for their continuing services, strategic guidance and financial support. Our success depends upon the continuing services of Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel who are the natural person in control of our Company.

Our Promoters and Directors bring extensive experience to the business conducted by our Company. Over the years, they have cultivated strong relationships with various customers and suppliers, significantly enhancing our Company's customer and supplier connections. We believe their deep industry expertise, customer management skills, and overall business acumen have contributed to our growth and profitability.

We benefit from the support and guidance of our Promoters, Directors, and Key Managerial Personnel, and our success relies on their continued involvement. Our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel play a critical role in managing day-to-day operations. The loss of any of our Promoters, Directors, or Key Management Personnel, or an inability to retain or recruit suitable replacements, could adversely affect our operations. Such a loss could impair our ability to efficiently manage and grow the business. Furthermore, failure to attract and retain skilled employees at reasonable costs could hinder the execution of our growth strategy. For more details about our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel, please refer to the chapter titled "Our Management" beginning on page 172 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

The attrition rates for the period ended July 31, 2025 and March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023 for the employees who are on pay roll of our Company are as below:

19. Our Company has unsecured loans which are repayable on demand.

Any demand from lenders for repayment of such unsecured loans may adversely affect our cash flows. Our Company has availed unsecured loans which may be recalled by lenders at any time with or without the existence of an event of default, on short or no notice. As of July 31, 2025, such loans amounted to ₹ 1494.90 lakhs. In the event that any lender seeks repayment of any such loan, our Company would need to find alternative sources of financing, which may not be available on commercially reasonable terms, or at all. As a result, any such demand may materially affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations. For further details, please see the chapter titled “Statement of Financial Indebtedness” on page 242 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

20. Our Company has not received “No Objection Certificate” from one of our Lender to undertake this Issue. Non-receipt of such “No-Objection” certificate could lead to delay or inability to proceed with Initial Public Offer (IPO)

We have not yet received the No Objection Certificate (“NOC”) from one of our lender, which is required to proceed with our Initial Public Offering (“IPO”). Although we are currently in the process of obtaining the necessary NOCs, there is no guarantee that such approval will be granted in a timely manner, or at all. The absence of this NOC could delay or even prevent us from proceeding with the IPO, which could materially impact our ability to complete the offering as planned. If we are unable to obtain the required NOC, we may need to explore alternative financing arrangements or revise our IPO timeline, which could result in a loss of investor confidence, reduced marketability of the offering, or adverse effects on our business operations. Additionally, if our lender impose conditions or restrictions as part of the NOC process, this may affect our ability to use the proceeds from the IPO in the manner we currently intend. Any such conditions could lead to unexpected financial or operational constraints, which may have an impact on our business strategies and growth plans. While we are working diligently with our lender to secure the necessary NOCs, there can be no assurance that such efforts will be successful or completed within the timeframe required for our IPO. As a result, our IPO could be delayed, deferred, or even cancelled, which could adversely affect our financial condition, liquidity, and prospects.

21. Strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands by our employees or any other kind of disputes with our employees/workmen in future could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our Company as at July 31, 2025, has total 23 employees on the Company's payroll. With an increase in our operation capacities or execution of any expansion projects in future, we expect increase in such number of employees. Historically, we have good relationship with our employees. There are no instances of any lockouts, strikes, or any disruptions of any sort due to employee unrest, in past.

However, there can be no assurance that we may not experience any disruptions in our operations in future as well. In case of disputes or other problems with our work force such as strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands, our business, financial conditions and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

22. If we are unable to effectively address the increased competition we anticipate, we may lose market share and experience a decline in profits, which could negatively impact our business, operational results, and financial condition.

Our products face competition from current products offered by local companies, multinational companies, and other global competitors across all our product portfolios. If our competitors capture significant market share at our expense, it could negatively impact our business, financial performance, and results of operations. Many of our competitors have more financial, manufacturing, research and development, marketing, and other resources, along with greater experience in obtaining regulatory approvals, a wider geographic reach, broader product offerings, and more robust sales forces. They may succeed in developing more effective, popular, or cost-effective products, potentially rendering our products obsolete or less competitive, which could harm our business and financial outcomes.

Additionally, we face margin pressure due to pricing competition from small, unorganized local players. The dominance of unorganized sector competitors has led to a highly competitive environment with intense price competition. Also, if a competitor or their customers acquire any of our clients or suppliers, we may lose business or face disruptions in our supply chain, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and operational results.

23. Our business requires us to obtain and renew certain registrations, licenses and permits from government and regulatory authorities and the failure to obtain and renew them in a timely manner may adversely affect our business operations. We require a number of approvals, NOCs, licenses, registrations and permits in the ordinary course of our business. Some of the approvals are required to be obtained by our Issuer Company and any failure or delay in obtaining the same in a timely manner may adversely affect our operations.

Our business operations require us to obtain and renew, from time to time, certain approvals, licenses, registrations and permits under central, state and local government rules in India, generally for carrying out our business. A majority of these approvals are granted for a limited duration. While we are required to obtain a number of approvals for legally conducting our business operations and we shall submit the applications for renewal of such approvals, as and when required, during the course of our business operations, we cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain approvals in respect of such applications, or any application made by us in the future. If we fail to obtain such registrations and licenses or renewals, in a timely manner, we may not then be able to carry on certain operations of our business, which may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. For details, see “Government and Other Approvals” beginning on page 266. The approvals required by us are subject to numerous conditions and we cannot assure you that these would not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. Any failure by us to comply with the applicable regulations in the future, or if the regulations governing our business are amended, we may incur increased costs, be subject to penalties, have our approvals and permits revoked or suffer a disruption in our operations, any of which could adversely affect our business. In case we fail to comply with these requirements, or a regulator alleges non compliance with these requirements, we may be subject to penalties and proceedings may be initiated against us. The introduction of additional government control or newly implemented laws and regulations, depending on the nature and extent thereof and our ability to make corresponding adjustments, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial conditions. These laws and regulations and the way in which they are implemented and enforced may change from time to time and there can be no assurance that future legislative or regulatory changes will not have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

We have submitted certain applications to various regulatory authorities seeking approvals and licenses. For details, see “Government and Other Approvals” beginning on page 266. There can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will issue such permits or approvals to us or that they will be issued on time. Further, these permits, licenses and approvals are subject to several conditions and we cannot assure you that we will be able to continuously meet the conditions, which may lead to cancellation, revocation or suspension of relevant permits/licenses/approvals. Failure on our part to renew or maintain such permits, licenses or approvals may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material impact on our business.

In the future, we may also be required to obtain new permits and approvals for our proposed operations. While we believe that we will be able to obtain such permits and approvals as and when required, there can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will issue any of such permits or approvals in the time-frame anticipated by us or at all. Failure by us to maintain or obtain the required permits or approvals, may result in the interruption of our operations or delay or prevent our expansion plans and may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

24. Our Promoter Group Entity is engaged in the similar line of business activities as those undertaken by our Company, which may result in conflict of interest.

Our Promoter group entity, namely Peshwa Nutrition Private Limited is engaged in the similar line of business as that of our Company and which may result in a potential conflict of interest. For further details, refer chapter titled “Promoter and Promoter Group” beginning on page 191. However, the Company has entered into a non-compete arrangement dated November 27, 2025 with Peshwa Nutrition Private Limited to assure that the Promoter Group Entity will not engage in any competing business activity or acquire interests in competing ventures. We cannot assure you that such companies will not compete with us in similar markets or our existing business or any future business that we may undertake or that we will be able to suitably resolve such a conflict without an adverse effect on our business. Any such present and future conflicts may have an adverse effect on our reputation, business and results of operations.

25. Failure to effectively execute our business strategy could negatively impact our operations and hinder our growth.

The success of our business relies on our ability to efficiently implement our business strategy. Strategies are built on assumptions about the market, competitors, and internal capabilities. If these assumptions prove false, execution will struggle. Effective execution of a strategy, often involves coordinating many different departments, careful allocation of financial, human, and technological resources. Misallocation can cripple the strategy. This complexity increases the chances of missteps. Also, change, which is inherent in strategy execution, can face resistance from employees, management, or established processes. While we have generally succeeded in executing our plans in the past, there is no guarantee that we will achieve timely and budget-compliant execution in the future. Failure to implement our strategy effectively could adversely impact our business, financial condition, and operational results.

26. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against all potential losses to which we may be subject to, and this may have a material adverse effect on our business.

Our operations are subject to risks inherent in manufacturing facilities such as risk of equipment failure, work accidents, fire, earthquakes, flood and other force majeure events, acts of terrorism and explosions including hazards that may cause injury and loss of life, severe damage to and the destruction of property and equipment and environmental damage. Our significant insurance policy consists of fire insurance. While we believe that we maintain insurance coverage in adequate amounts consistent with size of our business, our insurance policy does not cover all risks, specifically risks such as cash in transit, goods in transit, machinery breakdown, keyman insurance, workmen compensation, group personal accident or Medclaim policy. Failure to effectively cover ourselves against the associated risks may potentially lead to material losses. There can be no assurance that our insurance policy will be adequate to cover the losses/ damages suffered or that such insurance coverage will continue to be available on reasonable terms or will be available in sufficient amounts to cover one or more large claims, or that the insurer will not disclaim coverage as to any future claim. If we suffer a significant uninsured loss or if insurance claim in respect of the subject matter of insurance is not accepted or any insured loss suffered by us significantly exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

27. If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and compliances, our business and reputation could be adversely affected.

We are in the process of setting up internal controls and compliance system for our business. Accordingly, at this stage we cannot assure that there are no deficiencies in statutory and/or regulatory compliances. Further we cannot assure that deficiencies in our internal controls will not arise or that we will be able to implement and continue to maintain adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls, in a timely manner or at all. If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and compliances, our business and reputation could be adversely affected.

28. Our Promoter and the Promoter Group will jointly continue to retain majority shareholding in our Company after the Issue, which will allow them to determine the outcome of the matters requiring the approval of shareholders.

Our promoter along with the promoter group will continue to hold collectively majority of the Equity Share Capital of the Company. As a result of the same, they will be able to exercise significant influence over the control of the outcome of the matter that requires approval of the majority shareholder's vote. Such a concentration of the ownership may also have the affect of delaying, preventing or deterring any change in the control of our company. In addition to the above, our promoter will continue to have the ability to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with our interest or the interest of some or all of our minority shareholders, and there is no assurance that such action will not have any adverse effect on our future financials or results of operations.

29. Employee misconduct or errors, which can be difficult to detect, could negatively impact our financial condition, operational results, and reputation.

Employee misconduct or errors could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions and serious harm to our reputation. There can be no assurance that we will be able to detect or deter such misconduct. Moreover, the precautions we take to prevent and detect such activity may not be effective in all cases. Our employees may also commit errors that could subject us to claims and proceedings for alleged negligence, as well as regulatory actions on account of which our business, financial condition, results of operations and goodwill could be adversely affected. Although our company has not encountered any such instances in past which will negatively impact our business, operational results, financial condition, and cash flows.

30. Our Company has entered into certain related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future.

Our Company has entered into few related party transactions with our Promoters, Directors, Promoter Group, Group companies/entities during the last three Financial Years. While our all such transactions have been conducted on the arm's length basis and as per the Companies Act, 2013, there can be no assurance that it could not have been achieved on more favourable terms had such transactions not been entered into with related parties. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operation. Please refer "Annexure 28-Related Party Transactions" under the chapter titled "Restated Financial Statements" beginning on page no. 199 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

31. The average cost of acquisition of Equity shares by our Promoters is lower than the Issue price.

Our Promoter's average cost of acquisition of Equity shares in our Company is lower than the Issue Price of Equity shares as given below:

Sr. No.	Name of Promoters	No. of Equity Shares held	Average Cost of Acquisition per equity share (in ₹)*# $
1.	Rahat Ali Saiyed	24,50,000	(13.57)
2.	Sadaf Saiyed	29,00,000	3.28
3.	Shehnaj	21,38,000	2.40
4.	Riyazuddin Qureshi	18,60,000	5.00
5.	Mo Jed	6,20,000	5.00

**The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters has been calculated by taking into account the amount paid by them to acquire and Shares allotted to them as reduced by amount received on sell of shares i.e. net of sale consideration is divided by net quantity of shares acquired.*

# Rounded Off

32. The capacity of our processing unit is not fully utilized. Consequently, if there is also any under-utilization of our capacities in future, it could affect our ability to fully absorb fixed costs and thus may adversely impact our financial performance.

The capacity of our current plant is not fully utilized. Further, we propose to fully utilize our production capacities in coming years based on our estimates of market demand and profitability. In the event of non-materialization of our estimates and expected order flow for our product and/or failure of optimum utilization of our capacities, due to factors including adverse economic scenario, change in demand or for any other reason, our ability to fully absorb our fixed cost will be impaired and may adversely impact our financial performance.

33. Failure to maintain product quality standards or keep up with technological advancements could negatively affect our business, financial performance, and operational results.

Our business, financial performance, and operational results could be significantly impacted if we fail to maintain product quality standards or do not keep pace with technological advancements. Despite implementing strict quality control measures, we cannot guarantee that our products will consistently meet customer expectations for quality. If our products do not meet the expected quality standards or are perceived as outdated in comparison to market alternatives, customer satisfaction may decline. This could result in lower sales, diminished reputation, and loss of existing or potential customers.

Additionally, rapid changes in customer expectations driven by advancements in technology, the introduction of new products, or other factors, and our inability to meet these evolving demands, could adversely affect our business, operational results, and financial condition. While we consistently focus on the quality of our products to meet customer needs and strive to update our technology, failure to anticipate or respond effectively to shifting technical requirements, market demands, or client expectations could negatively impact our business and financial outcomes.

34. In addition to receiving regular remuneration, other benefits, and expense reimbursements, our Promoters and Directors have interests in the Company through their shareholding and entitlement to dividends. They are also interested in transactions conducted between the Company and themselves.

Our Promoters and Directors have an interest in our Company to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement, in addition to their regular remuneration, benefits, and reimbursement of expenses. They also have an interest in transactions between our Company and themselves. These transactions may or may not be conducted at arm's length or in the ordinary course of business. If such transactions are not carried out at arm's length or in the ordinary course of business, it could impact our financial position.

For details of transactions already executed by our Company with our Promoters and Directors over the past three years, please refer to "Annexure 28 –Related Party Transactions" in the chapter titled "Restated Financial Statements" beginning on page 199 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

35. A shortage or non-availability of electricity may adversely affect our processing unit operations and have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our processing unit operations require a significant amount and continuous supply of electricity and any shortage or non-availability may adversely affect our operations. We currently depend on state electricity supply for our energy requirements. Any failure on our part to obtain alternate sources of electricity in a timely manner and at an acceptable cost, may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

36. *Dependence on debt and outflow of finance cost leads to outflow of cash flows and reduce overall profitability.

Due to manufacturing activities, our business requires significant working capital. We depend on internal accrual, creditors and borrowed fund to meet out finance for working capital. We may also be required to depend on the additional borrowed capital to fund the working capital in future with increase in volume of operations and production. The additional borrowed fund may require us to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flow from operations to payments of interests, thereby reducing the availability of our cash flow to fund capital expenditures and other general corporate expenditures. It limits our borrowing ability and places us at a competitive disadvantage relative to competitors that have less debt or greater financial resources. There can be no assurance that we will be able to generate enough cash flow from operations or that we will be able to obtain enough capital to service our debt or fund our planned capital expenditures. In addition, we may need to refinance some or all of our indebtedness.

37. *Majority of our Directors do not have any prior experience of being a director in any other listed company in India.

Our Company currently has 6 (Six) directors on our Board out of which 2 (Two) are Executive Directors and 4 (Four) are Non-Executive Directors including 3 (Three) Independent Directors. Majority of our board of directors do not have any prior experience of being a director in any other listed company in India. While our Board members are qualified and have relevant experience in their respective field, they do not have any prior experience as a director in any other listed company in India which might lead to some potential challenges to our Company in complying with good corporate governance norms and practices. For further details, please see chapter titled “Our Management” beginning on page no. 172 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

38. *Compliance with and changes in safety, health and environmental laws and various labour, workplace and related laws and regulations impose additional costs and may increase our compliance costs and a such adversely affect our results of operations and our financial condition.

We are subject to a broad range of safety, health and environmental laws and various labour, workplace and related laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which we operate, which impose controls on the disposal and storage of raw materials, noise emissions, air and water discharges, on the storage, handling, employee exposure to hazardous substances and other aspects of our operations. Compliance with, and changes in these laws may increase our compliance costs and as such adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

39. *If we are unable to service our debt obligations in a timely manner or to comply with various financial and other covenants and other terms and conditions of our financing agreements, it may adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

As of July 31, 2025 our Company had total indebtedness in the form of short term and long-term borrowings of ₹ 2793.98 lakhs on restated basis. Our indebtedness could have several important consequences, including but not limited to the following:

- a portion of our cash flows may be used towards repayment of our existing debt, which will reduce the availability of our cash flows to fund working capital, capital expenditures and other general corporate requirements;
- our ability to obtain additional financing in the future at reasonable terms may be restricted;
- fluctuations in market interest rates may affect the cost of our borrowings, as some of our indebtedness is at variable interest rates;
- there could be a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations if we are unable to service our indebtedness or otherwise comply with financial and other covenants specified in the financing agreements;

Many of our financing agreements also include various conditions and covenants that require us to obtain consent of the lenders prior to carrying out certain activities or entering into certain transactions. Certain covenants in these agreements require us to obtain approval/permission from our lenders in certain conditions. In the event of default or the breach of certain covenants, our lender has the option to make the entire outstanding amount payable immediately. There can be no assurance that we will be able to comply with these financial or other covenants or that we will be able to obtain consents necessary to take the actions that we believe are required to operate and grow our business. For further details in this regard, please refer to notes under chapter titled “Restated Financial Statements” beginning on page no. 199 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

40. *Our lenders have charge over our movable and immovable properties in respect of finance availed by us and our promoters, Directors and member of promoters group have provided their personal guarantee for such debt facility availed by us.

We have secured outstanding debt of ₹ 1299.08 lakhs as on July 31, 2025 and we have secured our lenders by creating charge over our movable and immovable properties and our promoters, directors and member of promoter group have provided their personal guarantee for such debt facility availed by us. In the event we default in repayment of the loans availed by us and any interest thereof, our properties may be forfeited by lenders.

Moreover, in the event that any of these guarantees are revoked by promoters, members of promoters group or third party, the lenders for such facilities may require alternate properties as mortgages/guarantees, repayment of amounts outstanding under such facilities, or may even terminate such facilities.

We may not be successful in procuring alternative properties/guarantees satisfactory to the lenders, and as a result may need to repay outstanding amounts under such facilities or seek additional sources of capital, which may not be available on acceptable terms or at all and any such failure to raise additional capital could affect our operations and our financial condition.

For further information on the financing and loan agreements along with the total amounts outstanding, please refer to chapter titled “Restated Financial Statements” beginning on page no. 199 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

41. *We intend to utilise the Net Proceeds for funding our capital expenditure requirements and we are yet to place orders for some of our capital expenditure requirements. There is no assurance that we would be able to source such capital expenditure requirements in a timely manner or at commercially acceptable prices.

Although we have identified the type of Plant & Machinery required to be bought however, we are yet to place orders for the Plant & Machinery as detailed in the “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 79 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. These are based on our estimates and on third-party quotations, which are subject to a number of variables, including possible cost overruns, changes in management’s views of the desirability of current plans, among others which may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Further, we cannot assure that we would be able to procure these Plant & Machinery, or procure the same within budgeted costs and timelines. Delays in acquisition of the same could result in the cost and time overrun, which would have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 79 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

42. *Changes in technology may render our current technologies obsolete or require us to make substantial investments.

To remain competitive and efficient, modernization and technology upgradation are crucial for reducing costs and increasing output. Our business relies on technology and machinery to deliver quality products. However, there is a risk of our technology and machinery becoming obsolete over time or not being upgraded timely, which can adversely impact our operations and financial condition. While we believe that we have implemented updated technology, we understand the importance of continuous improvement. We are committed to staying abreast of the latest technological standards and trends to enhance our capabilities. In the event of a new technology emerging in our industry, we may be required to invest in adopting that technology or upgrading our existing machinery and equipment to remain competitive.

The costs associated with upgrading technology and modernizing machinery are significant, and they can have a substantial impact on our finances and operations. These investments may lead to higher capital expenditures and can temporarily affect our profitability and cash flow. We must carefully assess the potential benefits and returns on such investments to ensure they align with our long-term growth objectives.

Our ability to successfully implement technology upgrades and modernization efforts depends on various factors, including availability of skilled technicians, compatibility of new technology with existing systems, and adequate financial resources. Delays or challenges in adopting new technology can hinder our operational efficiency and competitiveness in the market.

43. *Our ability to pay any dividends will depend upon future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures.

We may retain all our future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of our business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. As such our Company has not paid any dividend in past. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on factors that our Board of Directors deem relevant, including among others, our results of operations, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. Accordingly, realization of a gain on shareholders investments may largely depend upon the appreciation of the price of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that our Equity Shares will appreciate in value.

44. Any variation in the utilization of the Net Proceeds as disclosed in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus shall be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior approval of the shareholders of our Company.

We propose to utilize the Net Proceeds towards utilization for working capital requirement and General Corporate Purposes. For further details of the proposed objects of the Issue, see chapter titled “Object of the Issue” beginning on page no. 79 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. However, these objects of the Issue have not been appraised by any bank, financial institution or other independent agency. Further, we cannot determine with any certainty if we would require the Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund any exigencies arising out of the competitive environment, business conditions, economic conditions or other factors beyond our control.

In terms of Regulation 41 of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, prior to filing the Red Herring Prospectus with RoC, our Company will appoint a Monitoring Agency to monitor the utilization of the Gross Proceeds as the proposed Offer exceeds 5,000.00 lakhs. The Monitoring Agency will monitor the utilisation of the Gross Proceeds and the Monitoring Agency shall submit the report required under Regulation 41(2) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, on a quarterly basis, until such time as the Gross Proceeds have been utilised in full and Company shall provide details / information / certifications obtained from statutory auditors on the utilization of the Net Proceeds to the Monitoring Agency. Our Company undertakes to place the report(s) of the Monitoring Agency on receipt before the Audit Committee without any delay. The fund requirement and deployment are based on internal management estimates and has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. Accordingly, within the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 79 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, the Management will have significant flexibility in applying the proceeds received by our Company from the Issue. However, in accordance with Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, and relevant provisions of SEBI ICDR Regulations, 2018, a company shall not vary the objects of the Issue without our Company being authorised to do so by our shareholders by way of special resolution and other compliances in this regard. Our Promoters and controlling shareholders shall provide exit opportunity to such shareholders who do not agree to the proposal to vary the objects, at such price, and in such manner, as may be prescribed by SEBI, in this regard.

45. The Issue price of our Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue and the market price of our Equity Shares may decline below the Issue Price and you may not be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

The Issue price of the equity shares have been based on many factor and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue. For further information please refer the chapter titled “Basis for Issue Price” beginning on page no. 110 of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The market price of our Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Issue, and may decline below the Issue Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

46. The Objects of the Issue for which funds are being raised, are based on our management estimates and the same have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any independent agency. The deployment of funds in the project is entirely at our discretion, based on the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titled as “Objects of the Issue”.

The fund requirement and deployment, as mentioned in the chapter titled as “Object of the Issue” beginning on page no. 79 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is based on the estimates of our management and has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any other independent agency. These fund requirements are based on our current business plan. We cannot assure that the current business plan will be implemented in its entirety or at all. In view of the highly competitive and dynamic nature of our business, we may have to revise our business plan from time to time and consequently these fund requirements. The deployment of the funds as stated under chapter titled “Object of the Issue” on page no. 79 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is at the discretion of our Board of Directors and is not subject to monitoring by any external independent agency. Further, we cannot assure that the actual costs or schedule of implementation under chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” will not vary from the estimated costs or schedule of implementation. Any such variance may be on account of one or more factors, some of which may be beyond our control and will be subject applicable rules and regulations. The occurrence of any such event may delay our business plans and/or may have an adverse bearing on our expected revenues and earnings.

47. In the event there is any delay in the completion of the Issue, or delay in schedule of implementation, there would be a corresponding delay in the completion of the objects of this Issue which would in turn affect our revenues and results of operations.

The funds that we receive would be utilized for the objects of the Issue as stated in the chapter titled “Object of The Issue” beginning on page no. 79 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The proposed schedule of implementation of the objects of the Issue is based on our management’s estimates. If the schedule of implementation is delayed for any other reason whatsoever, including any delay in the completion of the Issue, it may adversely affect our revenues and results of operations.

48. We have not identified any alternate source of raising the funds required for the object of the Issue and the deployment of funds is entirely at our discretion and as per the details mentioned in the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue”.

Our Company has not identified any alternate source of funding for our object of the Issue and hence any failure or delay on our part to mobilize the required resources or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds can adversely affect our growth plan and profitability. The delay/shortfall in receiving these proceeds could result in inadequacy of funds or may result in borrowing funds on unfavourable terms, both of which scenarios may affect the business operation and financial performance of the Company. Further the deployment of the funds raised in the issue will be entirely at the discretion of the management and any revision in the estimates may require us to reschedule our projected expenditure and may have a bearing on our expected revenues and earnings. For further details of please refer chapter titled “Object of the Issue” beginning on page no. 79 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

49. The requirements of being a public listed company may strain our resources and impose additional requirements.

With the increased scrutiny of the affairs of a public listed company by shareholders, regulators and the public at large, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur in the past. We will also be subject to the provisions of the listing agreements signed with the Stock Exchange. In order to meet our financial control and disclosure obligations, significant resources and management supervision will be required. As a result, management’s attention may be diverted from other business concerns, which could have an adverse effect on our business and operations. There can be no assurance that we will be able to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or readily determine and report any changes to our results of operations in a timely manner as other listed companies. In addition, we will need to increase the strength of our management team and hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate public company experience and accounting knowledge, and we cannot assure that we will be able to do so in a timely manner. The failure of our Company to meet the listing requirements of stock exchange could lead to imposition of huge penalties, if any including suspension of trading, imposed by Stock Exchange.

50. There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will be listed on the relevant stock exchange in a timely manner or at all.

There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will be listed on the relevant stock exchange in a timely manner or at all. In accordance with Indian law, permission for listing and trading of our Equity Shares will not be granted until after certain actions have been completed in relation to this Issue and until Allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to this Issue. In accordance with current regulations and circulars issued by SEBI, our Equity Shares are required to be listed on the relevant stock exchange within such time as mandated under UPI Circulars, subject to any change in the prescribed timeline in this regard. However, we cannot assure you that the trading in our Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner or at all. Any failure or delay in obtaining final listing and trading approvals may restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

51. Estimates and forward-looking statement may prove to be inaccurate.

The Draft Red Herring Prospectus contains "forward-looking statements" that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, including, without limitation, statements regarding our future financial position, business strategy, plans and objectives for future operations, capital expenditure, and future cash flows, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations, projections, and beliefs about future events and financial trends that we believe may affect our financial condition, results of operations, business strategy, and financial needs. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, which could cause our actual results, performance, or achievements to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

52. An outbreak of other infectious or virulent diseases, if uncontrolled, may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

An outbreak of other infectious or virulent diseases, such as severe acute respiratory syndrome, the COVID-19 virus, the H1N1 virus, avian influenza (bird flu), the Zika virus or the Ebola virus, if uncontrolled, may have a material adverse effect on the economies of certain countries and our operations. If any of our employees or the employees of our suppliers and/or customers are infected with such diseases or if a significant portion of our workforce refuses to work for fear of contracting an infectious disease, our Company, our suppliers and/or our customers may be required to shut down operations for a period of time, and this could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. In addition, our revenue and profitability could be impacted to the extent that a natural disaster, health epidemic or other outbreak harms the Indian and global economy in general.

53. *Global economic, political and social conditions may harm our ability to do business, increase our costs and negatively affect our stock price.

Global economic and political factors that are beyond our control, influence forecasts and directly affect performance. These factors include interest rates, rates of economic growth, fiscal and monetary policies of governments, change in regulatory framework, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit availability, consumer debt levels, unemployment trends, terrorist threats and activities, worldwide military and domestic disturbances and conflicts, and other matters that influence consumer confidence, spending and tourism. Any changes in the regulatory framework could adversely affect our operations and growth prospects.

Our Company is subject to various regulations and policies. For details see chapter titled “Key Industry Regulations” beginning on page no. 160 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Our business and prospects could be materially adversely affected by changes in any of these regulations and policies, including the introduction of new laws, policies or regulations or changes in the interpretation or application of existing laws, policies and regulations. There can be no assurance that our Company will succeed in obtaining all requisite regulatory approvals in the future for our operations or that compliance issues will not be raised in respect of our operations, either of which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

54. *Civil disturbances, extremities of weather, regional conflicts and other political instability may have adverse effects on our operations and financial performance.

Certain events that are beyond our control such as earthquake, fire, floods and similar natural calamities may cause interruption in the business undertaken by us. Our operations and financial results and the market price and liquidity of our equity shares may be affected by changes in Indian Government policy or taxation or social, ethnic, political, economic or other adverse developments in or affecting India.

55. *Revenue of our Company is derived from business in India and a decrease in economic growth in India could cause our business to suffer.

At present, we derive revenue in India, consequently, our performance and the quality and growth of our business are dependent on the health of the economy of India. However, the Indian economy may be adversely affected by factors such as adverse changes in liberalization policies, social disturbances, terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war, natural calamities or interest rates changes, which may also affect the microfinance industry. Any such factor may contribute to a decrease in economic growth in India which could adversely impact our business and financial performance.

56. *We are subject to risks arising from interest rate fluctuations, which could adversely impact our business, financial condition and operating results.

Changes in interest rates could significantly affect our financial condition and results of operations. If the interest rates for our existing or future borrowings increase significantly, our cost of servicing such debt will increase. This may negatively impact our results of operations, planned capital expenditures and cash flows.

57. *The price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, or an active trading market for our Equity Shares may not develop.

Prior to this Issue, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares. Our Company has appointed Finaax Capital Advisors Private Limited as Book Running Lead Manager for the equity shares of our Company. However, the trading price of our Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue due to a variety of factors, including our results of operations and the performance of our business, competitive conditions, general economic, political and social factors, the performance of the Indian and global economy and significant developments in India’s fiscal regime, volatility in the Indian and global securities market, performance of our competitors, the Indian Capital Markets and Finance industry, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts and announcements by us or others regarding contracts, acquisitions, strategic partnership, joint ventures, or capital commitments.

58. *There are restrictions on daily movements in the price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder’s ability to sell, or the price at which it can sell, Equity Shares at a particular point in time.

Once listed, we would be subject to circuit breakers imposed by stock exchanges in India, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index - based market - wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on circuit breakers is set by the stock exchanges based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The stock exchanges do not inform us of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker in effect from time to time, and may change it without our knowledge. This circuit breaker limits the upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, no assurance may be given regarding your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price at which you may be able to sell your Equity Shares at any particular time.

59. *Taxes and other levies imposed by the Government of India or other State Governments, as well as other financial policies and regulations, may have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Taxes and other levies imposed by the Central or State Governments in India that impact our industry include various taxes introduced on a permanent or temporary basis from time to time. There can be no assurance that these tax rates / slab will continue in the future. Any changes in these tax rates / slabs could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

60. *BSE may not grant Approval for listing of equity shares of our Company.

Our company will apply for In-principle approval to BSE for its proposed public issue. There is a risk that BSE Limited (BSE) may not grant approval for our proposed public issue. The approval process involves rigorous scrutiny of our company's financials, compliance with regulatory requirements, and overall suitability for listing. Despite our efforts to meet all regulatory standards and provide comprehensive disclosures, there is no guarantee that the BSE will find our application satisfactory. Non-approval by the BSE would significantly impact our ability to access the capital markets and raise the necessary funds for our planned expansions and operations. This could adversely affect our financial condition and future growth prospects. Investors should consider this risk before making any investment decisions.

61. *The Investors will not be able to sell immediately on Stock Exchange any of the Equity Shares that they purchase in the Issue until the Issue receives appropriate trading permissions.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the SME Platform of BSE. Pursuant to Indian regulations, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading may commence. We cannot assure the Investors that the Equity Shares will be credited to investor's demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict their ability to dispose of the Equity Shares. In accordance with section 40 of the Companies Act, 2013, in the event that the permission of listing the Equity Shares is denied by the stock exchanges, we are required to refund all monies collected to investors.

62. *Sale of Equity Shares by our Promoters or other significant shareholder(s) may adversely affect the Trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of equity shares by our Promoters or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sales of Equity Shares might occur.

63. *The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and the Issue may not result in an active or liquid market for the Equity Shares. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

Prior to the issue, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Indian Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. Listing and quotation do not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, there will be liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The Issue Price of the Equity Shares may bear no relationship to the market price of the Equity Shares after the Issue. The market price of the Equity Shares after the Issue can be volatile as a result of several factors beyond our control, including volatility in the Indian and global securities markets, our results of operations, the performance of our competitors, developments in the Indian and global machine tools industry, changing perceptions in the market about investments in this sector in India, investor perceptions of our future performance, adverse media reports about us or our sector, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts, significant developments in India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies, and significant developments in India's fiscal regulations. In addition, the Stock Exchanges may experience significant price and volume fluctuations, which may have a material adverse effect on the market price of the Equity Shares. General or industry-specific market conditions or stock performance or domestic or international macroeconomic and geopolitical factors unrelated to our performance may also affect the price of the Equity Shares. In particular, the stock market as a whole in the past has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations that have affected the market price of many companies in ways that may have been unrelated to the companies' operating performances. For these reasons, investors should not rely on recent trends to predict future share prices, results of operations or cash flow and financial condition.

64. *Government regulation of foreign ownership of Indian securities may have an adverse effect on the price of the Equity Shares.

Foreign ownership of Indian securities is subject to government regulation. Under foreign exchange regulations currently in affect in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the rupees proceeds from the sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/ tax clearance certificate from the Income Tax authorities. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained.

65. *Natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy and cause Our Company's business to suffer.

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunami, floods etc. In recent years, the extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy. Prolonged spells of abnormal rainfall or other natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations as well as the price of the Equity Shares.

66. *Terrorist attacks or war or conflicts involving India or other countries could adversely affect consumer and business sentiment and the financial markets and adversely affect our business.

Terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war may adversely affect global equity markets and economic growth as well as the Indian economy and stock markets. Such acts negatively impact business and economic sentiment, which could adversely affect our business and profitability. Also, India has from time to time experienced, and continues to experience, social and civil unrest and hostilities with neighboring countries. Armed conflicts could disrupt communications and adversely affect the Indian economy. Such events could also create a perception that investments in Indian companies involve a high degree of risk. This, in turn, could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including our Equity Shares. The consequences of any armed conflicts are unpredictable and we therefore may not be able to foresee events that could have an adverse effect on our business.

67. *The extent and reliability of Indian infrastructure could adversely affect our Company's results of operations and financial condition.

India's physical infrastructure is in developing phase compared to that of many developed nations. Any congestion or disruption in its port, rail and road networks, electricity grid, communication systems or any other public facility could disrupt our Company's normal business activity. Any deterioration of India's physical infrastructure would harm the national economy, disrupt the transportation of goods and supplies, and add costs to doing business in India. These problems could interrupt our Company's business operations, which could have an adverse effect on its results of operations and financial condition.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process: Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20/- to ₹24/- per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹ 22/- in the above example. The Company in consultation with the BRLM, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹22/-. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

Steps to be taken by the Bidders for Bidding:

JUSTIFICATION FOR HOLDING LEVELS

1. Inventories

FY 2022-23 (107 Days):

During FY 2022–23, the Company operated as a partnership firm and primarily catered to direct customers only. Accordingly, production and procurement planning were aligned with a steady demand cycle from these customers. The inventory holding period remained at 107 days, reflecting a stable operational model, consistent order flow, and moderate stocking levels necessary to maintain uninterrupted supply.

FY 2023-24 (86 Days):

The decrease in inventory holding to 86 days during FY 2023–24 is attributable to strategic changes in the Company's business following the conversion from a partnership firm to Limited company in FY 2023-24. Key Reasons for significant decrease in holding levels include:

- Post conversion, the Company expanded its market reach by commencing sales to super stockists in addition to direct customers. This required maintaining higher finished goods inventory to support larger and more frequent bulk orders expected from super stockists.
- To ensure uninterrupted supply and meet the anticipated surge in demand from super stockists, the Company increased its raw material and finished goods inventory as of March 2024.

We set out below details of our revenue from operations in terms of products sold to super stockists and other direct customers for the financial year March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 as:

-------------	------------	------------

	Amount (₹ in lakhs)	%	Amount (₹ in lakhs)	%
Revenue from Super Stockists	766.95	8.70%	9,501.66	55.39%
Revenue from Direct Customers	8,046.03	91.30%	7,651.84	44.61%
Total Revenue from Operations	8,812.98	100.00%	17,153.50	100.00%

FY 2024-25 (57 Days):

The inventory holding period reduced significantly to 57 days in FY 2024–25. Key Reasons for significant decrease in holding levels include:

- The Company had accumulated sufficient inventory at the end of FY 2023–24 to support projected sales growth for FY 2024–25, particularly to super stockists. This inventory levels allowed the Company to meet demand without requiring proportionate new purchases during the year.
- As our super stockist network became stable, sales increased and products started moving out faster. This helped us reduce inventory quickly and improved our stock turnover.

FY 2025-26 (69 Days):

The expected inventory holding period for FY 2025–26 is 69 days. Justification includes:

- The Company intends to increase production capacity during FY 2025–26. With higher output, additional raw materials and finished goods inventory will be required to support expanded operations.
- Sales to super stockists and direct customers are projected to grow, necessitating a moderate increase in inventory to ensure timely fulfilment of orders.
- While inventory levels are expected to rise compared to FY 2024–25, they remain significantly lower than FY 2023–24 due to improved systems, forecasting, and stability in the distribution network.

FY 2026-27 (66 Days):

The expected inventory holding period for FY 2026-27 is 66 days. Justification includes:

- With the expanded manufacturing capacity fully operational, inventory planning will stabilize and align with the optimized production cycles.

Key points for Inventory Holding:

The working capital requirements of our Company are closely linked to the seasonal nature of its principal raw material i.e. wheat. As wheat is a Rabi crop harvested between Late February and April, procurement is concentrated from January to till mid of April, requiring significant investment in inventory during this period. This ensures uninterrupted production and reduces exposure to price fluctuations and supply constraints in the remaining months.

It should be noted that the working capital position as on 31 March does not accurately reflect the operational needs of the business, as this coincides with the fullest phase of the cycle normally when inventories are at their highest and borrowings limits are largely used. We need higher working capital to hold raw material inventory till September.

The Quarter-wise purchase of the Company is as follows:

Period	FY 2024-25		FY 2023-24		FY 2022-23
	Amount	%	Amount	%	Amount	%
April to June	1,981.71	12.76%	476.06	5.13%	239.47	17.79%
July to September	2,439.05	15.71%	1,669.96	18.00%	284.98	21.17%
October to December	5,425.34	34.94%	2,547.12	27.46%	270.18	20.07%
January to March	5,683.56	36.60%	4,583.69	49.41%	551.60	40.97%
Total	15,529.66	100.00%	9,276.84	100.00%	1,346.23	100.00%

2. Trade Receivables:

FY 2022-23 (28 Days):

In FY 2022–23, the Company operated as a partnership firm and sold primarily to direct customers. These customers followed shorter payment cycles, resulting in faster collections and a receivable holding period of 28 days. The business strategy was simple, with limited credit risk and quick recovery of dues.

FY 2023-24 (22 Days):

The trade receivable cycle decreased to 22 days during FY 2023–24. Justification:

- After the Company converted into the Limited company in FY 2023-24, it expanded distribution to super stockists. This segment typically operates with a longer credit period of around 40 days. As sales to super stockists increased, the overall receivable cycle extended, since their payments come in later compared to direct customers. The change in sales strategy and customer profile naturally led to a increase in receivable days during this year.

FY 2024-25 (41 Days):

The trade receivable period slightly decreased to 41 days in FY 2024–25. As the super stockist network became more stable, and their payment patterns aligned more predictably with the around 35 to 40 day cycle. With both direct customers and super stockiest contributing to sales, the collection cycle settled at a stable level of around 41 days.

FY 2025-26 (47 Days) and FY 2026-27 (53 Days):

The trade receivable cycle is projected to rise slightly to 47 days in FY 2025–26 and to 53 days in FY 2026–27. Justification:

- As the Company expands its distribution network and sales volumes, a larger share is expected to come from super stockist, who follow longer credit terms.
- With expanded production capacity, more inventories will be available for sale, leading to higher receivables and a slightly longer holding period.

3. Trade Payables:

Trade payables are amounted to be paid to suppliers by company following operating expenses.

Our Company had trade payable days in the range of 6 - 22 days in the financial year 2022- 23, 2023-24 and 2024-25. Our Company estimates Trade Payable Holding period of 3 days in financial year 2025-26 and 3 days in financial year 2026-27. Our company has intended to reduce number of days for trade payable to maintain relations with our suppliers. By reducing the time, it takes to settle our payables we aim to negotiate more favourable terms and conditions with our suppliers, enabling us to access competitive pricing for the goods we receive.

Additionally, certain suppliers, being local farmers, require the Company to make advance payments or settle invoices immediately upon delivery of goods. As our procurement model evolves and we increasingly engage with suppliers who operate under such terms, the requirement for higher working capital becomes essential. These advance or on-arrival payment obligations reduce the effective trade payable period and necessitate sufficient liquidity to ensure smooth operations.

Apart from above there are other working capital requirements such as Short-Term loans and advances, Other Current assets, Other Current Liabilities, Short term provisions. Details of which are given below.

Short Term Loans and Advances	Short Term Loans and advances mainly include advance to supplier, balance with government authority and other advances. Short Term Loan and advances are estimated based on previous years outstanding amount and for expected Business requirement of Company.
Other Current Assets	Other Current Assets mainly includes prepaid expense. Other current assets are estimated based on previous years outstanding amount and for expected Business requirement of Company
Other Current Liability	Other Current Liability mainly includes Statutory dues payable; advances received from customers and other payables. Other current liabilities are estimated based on previous years outstanding amount and for expected Business requirement of Company
Short Term Provisions	Short Term Provisions mainly include provision for income tax, provision for expense and provision for gratuity. Short Term Provision are estimated based on previous years outstanding amount and for expected Business requirement of Company

Global Macroeconomic Scenario

Global Economic Overview

The global economy, which recorded GDP growth at 3.3% in CY 2024, is expected to show resilience at 2.8% in CY 2025. This marks the slowest expansion since 2020 and reflects a 0.5%-point downgrade from January 2025 forecast. Moreover, the projection for CY 2026 has also reduced to 3.0%. This slowdown is majorly attributed due to numerous factors such as high inflation in many economies despite central bank effort to curb inflation, continuing energy market volatility driven by geopolitical tensions particularly in Ukraine and Middle East, and the re-election of Donald Trump as US President extended uncertainty around the trade policies as well as overall global economic growth. High inflation and rising borrowing costs affected the private consumption on one hand while fiscal consolidation impacted the government consumption on the other hand. As a result, global GDP growth is estimated to moderate by 2.8% in CY 2025 as compared to 3.3% in CY 2024.

Note: Advanced Economies and Emerging & Developing Economies are as per the classification of the World Economic Outlook (WEO). This classification is not based on strict criteria, economic or otherwise, and it has evolved over time. It comprises of 40 countries under the Advanced Economies including the G7 (the United States, Japan, Germany, France, Italy, the United Kingdom, and Canada) and selected countries from the Euro Zone (Germany, Italy, France etc.). The group of emerging market and developing economies (156) includes all those that are not classified as Advanced Economies (India, China, Brazil, Malaysia etc.)

Historical and Projected GDP Growth

GDP growth across major regions exhibited a mixed trend between 2022-23, with GDP growth in many regions including North America, Emerging and Developing Asia, and Emerging and Developing Europe slowing further in 2024. In 2025, GDP growth rate in Emerging and Developing Asia (India, China, Indonesia, Malaysia, etc.) is expected to moderate further to 4.5% from 5.3% in the previous year, while in the North America, it is expected to moderate to 1.8% in CY 2025 from 2.8% in CY 2024.

Source-IMF World Economic Outlook April 2025 update.

Except Middle East & Central Asia, all other regions like Emerging and Developing Asia, Emerging and Developing Europe, Latin America & The Caribbean, Sub Saharan Africa and North America, are expected to record a moderation in GDP growth rate in CY 2025 as compared to CY 2024. Further, growth in the United States is expected to come down at 2.71% in CY 2025 from 2.80% in CY 2024 due to lagged effects of monetary policy tightening, gradual fiscal tightening, and a softening in labour markets slowing aggregate demand.

After a succession of adverse shocks in recent years, the global economy is facing another substantial headwind, with increased trade tension and heightened policy uncertainty. This is contributing to a deterioration in prospects across most of the world's economies. For emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs), the ability to narrow per capita income gaps with richer countries, boost job creation, and reduce extreme poverty remains insufficient. Downside risks to the outlook predominate, including an escalation of trade barriers, persistent policy uncertainty, rising geopolitical tensions, and an increased incidence of extreme climate events. Conversely, policy uncertainty and trade tensions may ease if major economies succeed in reaching lasting agreements that address ongoing trade disputes. The challenging global context faced by EMDEs is compounded by the fact that foreign direct investment inflows into these economies have fallen to less than half of their peak level in 2008 and are likely to remain subdued. Global cooperation is needed to restore a more stable and transparent global trade environment and scale up support for vulnerable countries grappling with conflict, debt burdens, and climate change. Across EMDEs, domestic policy action is also critical to contain inflation risks, strengthen fiscal resilience through improved revenue mobilization, and reprioritize spending. To unlock job creation and long-term growth, structural reforms must focus on raising institutional quality, attracting private investment, and strengthening human capital and labor markets. In particular, countries in fragile and conflict situations (FCS) face daunting development challenges that will require tailored domestic policy reforms, underpinned by well-coordinated multilateral support.

Global outlook

Global growth is slowing due to a substantial rise in trade barriers and the pervasive effects of an uncertain global policy environment. Growth is expected to weaken to 2.3 percent in 2025, with deceleration in most economies relative to last year. This would mark the slowest rate of global growth since 2008, aside from outright global recessions. In 2026-27, a tepid recovery is expected, leaving global output materially below January projections. Progress by emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs) in closing per capita income gaps with advanced economies and reducing extreme poverty is anticipated to remain insufficient. The outlook largely hinges on the evolution of trade policy globally. Growth could turn out to be lower if trade restrictions escalate or if policy uncertainty persists, which could also result in a build-up of financial stress. Other downside risks include weaker-than-expected growth in major economies with adverse global spillovers, worsening conflicts, and extreme weather events. On the upside, uncertainty and trade barriers could diminish if major economies reach lasting agreements that address trade tensions. The ongoing global headwinds underscore the need for determined multilateral policy efforts to foster a more predictable and transparent environment for resolving trade tensions, some of which stem from macroeconomic imbalances. Global policy efforts are also needed to confront the deteriorating circumstances of vulnerable EMDEs amid prevalent conflict and debt distress, while addressing long-standing challenges, including the effects of climate change. National policy makers need to contain risks related to inflation as well as strengthen their fiscal positions by raising additional domestic revenues and reprioritizing spending. To facilitate job creation and boost long-term growth prospects in EMDEs, reforms are essential to enhance institutional quality, stimulate private investment growth, develop human capital, and improve labor market functioning.

India Macroeconomic Analysis

India emerged as one of the fastest growth economies amongst the leading advanced economies and emerging economies. In CY 2024, even amidst geopolitical uncertainties, particularly those affecting global energy and commodity markets, India continues to remain one of the fastest growing economies in the world and is expected to grow by 6.2% in CY 2025 and 6.3% in 2026.

The Government stepped spending on infrastructure projects to boost the economic growth had a positive impact on economic growth. The capital expenditure of the central government increased by average 26.52% during FY 2023-FY 2024 which slowed to 7.27% in FY 2025 which is expected to translate in moderating GDP growth of 6.5% in 2024. In the Union Budget 2025-2026, the government announced INR 11.21 billion capex on infrastructure (10.12% higher than previous year revised estimates) coupled with INR 1.5 trillion in interest-free loans to states. This has provided much-needed confidence to the private sector, and in turn, expected to attract the private investment.

Regional prospects

All EMDE regions face a challenging outlook amid the rise in trade tensions and heightened global uncertainty. In 2025, growth is projected to slow in East Asia and Pacific as well as in Europe and Central Asia—both regions that are highly reliant on global trade—and, to a lesser extent, in South Asia. In Latin America and the Caribbean, growth is projected to be the lowest among EMDE regions over the forecast horizon, as activity is held back by high trade barriers and long-standing structural weaknesses. In regions with a large number of commodity exporters, including in the Middle East and North Africa and Sub-Saharan Africa, growth is anticipated to face drags from the weakening outlook for external commodity demand. Against the backdrop of a deteriorating global environment, growth forecasts for 2025 have been downgraded in all EMDE regions relative to January projections.

After being buffeted by a series of adverse shocks over 2020-24, the global economy is facing another significant headwind this year, with increased trade barriers and heightened policy uncertainty leading to a notable deterioration of the outlook relative to January (figure 1.1.A). In particular, global output is expected to grow at its weakest pace since 2008, aside from outright global recessions (figure 1.1.B). The sharp increase in tariffs and the ensuing uncertainty are contributing to a broad-based growth slowdown and deteriorating prospects in most of the world's economies (figure 1.1.C). Subdued global growth prospects are unlikely to improve materially without policy actions to address increasing trade restrictions, geopolitical tensions, heightened uncertainty, and limited fiscal space.

The global outlook is predicated on tariff rates close to those of late May prevailing throughout the forecast horizon. Accordingly, pauses to previously announced tariff hikes between the United States and its trading partners are assumed to persist. This baseline nonetheless entails the highest U.S. average effective tariff rate in nearly a century. In addition, in view of recent rapid shifts in trade policies and the potential for a return to even higher tariffs, consumers and businesses continue to grapple with unusually elevated uncertainty (figure 1.1.D). In this context, a prospective recovery in global trade and investment—two important drivers of long-term development that have been relatively subdued in recent years—has been disrupted.

Commodity prices plunged in early April in response to deteriorating growth prospects. Oil prices posted an especially large decline, with the effects of a notable hike in oil production by OPEC+ nations compounded by a muted outlook for oil demand growth (figure 1.1.E). Base metal prices also dropped as markets priced in substantial headwinds to global manufacturing and industrial activity but have since partially recovered. Overall commodity prices are forecast to decline by 10 percent in 2025, softening further in 2026—mainly due to falling oil prices.

Global headline inflation generally remains elevated relative to central bank targets and pre-pandemic averages and has even risen in some advanced economies since late last year. Slower disinflation globally over the last six months has largely reflected continuing inflationary pressures from services prices. The recent rise in consumer inflation expectations has been influenced by the implementation of trade restrictions. In addition, core inflation in some economies is expected to remain high due to persistent services price increases. In all, GDP-weighted global inflation is projected to average 2.9 percent in 2025 and 2026—still a little above the average inflation target—but with notable heterogeneity across economies.

Global financial conditions have been tighter this year, on average, relative to late 2024, principally reflecting trade policy uncertainty. Volatility in financial markets spiked and equity markets plunged globally as trade tensions escalated in early April; however, asset prices largely recovered after an initial 90-day tariff pause was announced and following the rollback in U.S.-China tariffs in May (figure 1.1.F). Long-term government bond yields in major advanced economies have increased since late last year, albeit with pronounced volatility. EMDE financial conditions are also somewhat tighter, on average, relative to late last year. In early April, many EMDEs saw sharp declines in equity markets amid a surge in capital outflows. Sovereign spreads rose, albeit to differing degrees based on economies' exposure to announced trade barriers. Nevertheless, EMDE equity markets regained ground and spreads narrowed again following the partial de-escalation in trade tensions.

Indian Outlook

Overall, the outlook for the Indian economy remains positive, demonstrating resilience amid a turbulent global environment, supported by robust domestic demand, easing inflationary pressures, a resilient external sector, and a steady employment situation. That said, global growth continues to face headwinds, with persistent trade frictions, heightened policy uncertainty, and ongoing geopolitical conflicts weighing on the broader economic outlook. These external challenges could potentially impact India's growth trajectory and warrant close and continuous monitoring.

Economic activity remains steady during the first two months of FY26

High-frequency indicators for the first two months of FY26 indicate resilient performance of the domestic economy amid the heightened geopolitical situation. E-way bill generation continues to climb, reaching a second all-time high level in May 2025, to 122.7 million. On a YoY basis, it continues to expand in double digits, signalling robust business activity. Furthermore, diesel and petrol consumption reached record-high levels in May 2025. This increase could primarily be attributed to increased leisure travel during the summer season, enhanced industrial activities boosting transport operations, and intensified agricultural irrigation efforts. The data for Manufacturing PMI in May 2025 signalled another month of improvement in business conditions in the sector. Although the rate of expansion in output and new orders eased from the previous month, it remains above the long-run averages. Healthy demand conditions continue to support sales and production. Furthermore, new export orders rose at one of the strongest rates recorded in three years.

Construction activity, proxied by steel consumption and cement production, witnessed moderation in momentum. Steel consumption grew by 7.0 per cent during April-May 2025, while cement production rose by 6.7 per cent during April 2025, remaining lower than the last quarter of FY25.

Services activity remained healthy in May 2025, with Services PMI at 58.8 compared to 58.7 in April 2025. Strong international demand, as evidenced by the near record improvement in the new export business index, continued to fuel services activity. Air cargo volume experienced strong double-digit growth in April 2025, achieving the highest growth rate in the last five months. Also, port traffic activity continued to expand in May compared to April and grew by 4.4 per cent on a YoY basis. This growth was driven by containerised cargo, petroleum, oil and lubricants, and miscellaneous cargo.

Demand conditions in May remained largely favourable, as indicated by the steady performance of high-frequency indicators. Domestic air passenger growth was 9.7 per cent in April 2025 compared to the same month last year, reflecting robust demand from urban travellers. However, retail passenger vehicle sales remained low in May 2025, due to subdued consumer sentiments, particularly for entry-level models, according to the Federation of Automobile Dealers Association.

Headline inflation continues downward trajectory

Retail inflation, measured by Consumer Price Index (CPI), experienced a sustained decline in May 2025, reaching 2.8 per cent, marking the seventh consecutive month of falling retail inflation. The observed moderation in the inflation rate is broad-based, indicating a sustained trend. The fall is driven by robust wheat production, increased pulse output, and favourable monsoon forecasts for the upcoming kharif season, which could also augur well for the rabi season from the perspective of better reservoir storage and groundwater recharge.

RBI unleashes rate cuts and liquidity boost amid cooling Inflation

In a significant move, the RBI's Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) reduced the repo rate by 50 basis points from 6 per cent to 5.5 per cent in June 2025. This represents the largest cut since March 2020, bringing the total rate reductions to 100 bps since February 2025, driven by a broad-based decline in inflation. The MPC's policy stance has shifted from 'accommodative' to 'neutral,' suggesting a more balanced approach, moving forward. Additionally, a 100-basis-point Cash Reserve Ratio cut, to be implemented in tranches from September-November 2025, is projected to inject about ₹2.5 lakh crore of durable liquidity into the system. These decisive actions by the MPC aim to ease funding costs, release loanable funds for the banking sector and thus support credit growth.

Improved inflation outlook amidst risks and uncertainties

In FY25, average inflation stood at 4.6 per cent, below the upper tolerance limit of inflation targeting. Assuming a normal monsoon, the RBI has projected retail inflation for FY26 at 4 per cent. The MPC, in April 2025, reduced the policy repo rate by 25 basis points to 6 per cent. Food inflation on a month-on-month basis dropped by (-)0.9 per cent in March 2025, indicating further prospects of a decline in the y-o-y food inflation rate. Although inflation in edible oils, as well as in gold and silver, remains elevated amidst international price pressures, the overall inflation outlook has improved with low core inflation and easing food prices. Nonetheless, ongoing global uncertainties, including trade tensions and geopolitical risks, pose upside risks to commodity prices and may put pressure on supply chains.

Conclusion and Outlook

Steady economic performance in FY25 underscores the resilience of domestic growth drivers amid a challenging global environment. Robust private consumption and resilient services sector activity were key contributors to overall economic expansion. The positive momentum has been extended into the early months of FY26, as reflected in the performance of high-frequency indicators such as e-way bill generation, fuel consumption and PMI indices among others.

While domestic HFIs remain robust, the global economic outlook has become increasingly subdued. Growth forecasts for all major economies have seen a downgrade in 2025. The latest forecast from the World Bank saw growth downgrades, led by the Euro Area (90bps), the US (50bps) and Japan (30bps). For China, the growth estimate has been kept unchanged at 4.5 per cent. The World Bank had retained India's real GDP growth forecast for 2025-26 at 6.3 per cent in its latest Global Economic Prospects report, citing global trade tensions and policy uncertainty. This follows a 40 basis points cut in April 2025, when the World Bank lowered its January forecast of 6.7 per cent to 6.3 per cent. Despite the cut, India is expected to remain the fastest-growing large economy. The World Bank sees growth improving to 6.5 per cent in 2026-27 and 6.7 per cent in 2027-28, supported in part by strong services exports.

The disinflationary outlook is bolstered by improved agricultural production estimates and a forecast of an above-normal monsoon. The RBI has revised its retail inflation projection for FY26 downward to 3.7 per cent. The southwest monsoon arrived on 24 May 2025 – its earliest onset since 2009 and well ahead of the typical June 1 schedule - boosting prospects for kharif sowing and improving reservoir levels. However, monsoon progress stalled around May 29, resulting in below-average rainfall across much of the country. However, conditions improved, and as of 25 June 2025, the country's cumulative rainfall was 7 per cent higher than the normal. Encouragingly, reservoir levels continue to improve, offering optimism for adequate irrigation in the upcoming kharif season. Still, there may be some upside risk to inflation stemming from global commodity price volatility, particularly a surge in crude oil prices, trade-tariff issues, geopolitical conflicts and potential weather-related disruptions.

With no major imbalances in the macro aggregates, a subdued inflation rate combined with a growth-supportive monetary policy stance, India's macroeconomic health is in a relative goldilocks situation. The brief Israel-Iran war, followed by the U.S. intervention, pushed the price of crude oil sharply higher. Its persistence would have threatened India's growth and fiscal outlook in the current financial year. Thankfully, there is a ceasefire, and oil prices have retreated sharply. There is an ample global supply of oil, but insurance costs and the perceived risk of potential closure of choke points might cause the landed price to rise. Therein lies the risk to India. For now, the risk has receded. But, it is too soon to sound the "all clear" for the rest of the year. But, then, we have to get used to doing the balancing act or the high-wire act for some time to come. In this, India is on a better footing than many other nations. We seek to build on it through critical agriculture, manufacturing, resources and technology missions and deregulation initiatives that unleash productivity. These may be nervous but exciting times for the Indian economy. Geopolitics may offer us opportunities that appeared remote previously. It is up to us to be flexible enough to ride the tide.

Annual and Quarterly: Investment & Consumption Scenario

Other major indicators such as Gross fixed capital formation (GFCF), a measure of investments, has shown fluctuation during FY 2025 as it registered 6.13% year-on-year growth against 8.78% yearly growth in FY 2024, taking the GFCF to GDP ratio measured to 33.40%.

Private Consumption Scenario

Source: MOSPI

Private Final Expenditure (PFCE) a realistic proxy to gauge household spending, observed growth in FY 2025 as compared to FY 2024. However, quarterly data indicated some improvement in the current fiscal as the growth rate improved over the corresponding period in the last fiscal.

AGRICULTURE AND FOOD INDUSTRY

India's agricultural sector has demonstrated remarkable resilience in recent years, marked by consistent growth rates. This stability can be largely attributed to various government initiatives to enhance productivity, promote crop diversification, and increase farmers' income. A crucial factor influencing agricultural performance is the impact of weather conditions. Climate variability can present significant challenges; however, farmers with diverse income streams are better positioned to navigate these uncertainties. Allied activities such as animal husbandry, fisheries or agroforestry, can enable the farmers to mitigate the risks effectively. Various government initiatives are specifically designed to address these challenges.

The 'Agriculture and Allied Activities' sector has long been the backbone of the Indian economy, playing a vital role in national income and employment. This sector contributes approximately 16 per cent of the country's GDP for FY241 (PE) at current prices and supports about 46.1 per cent of the population. Not only does its performance directly impact food security, but it also influences other sectors, sustaining livelihoods and supporting economic growth. In recent years, the agriculture sector in India has shown robust growth, averaging 5 per cent<sup>2</sup> annually from FY17 to FY23, demonstrating resilience despite challenges. In the second quarter of the FY25 year, the agriculture sector recorded a growth rate of 3.5 per cent<sup>3</sup>. This performance represents a recovery compared to the previous four quarters, during which growth rates varied from a modest 0.4 per cent to 2.0 per cent. The recent rise in growth rate can be attributed to improved conditions, potentially driven by favourable weather patterns, advancements in agricultural practices, and government initiatives to enhance productivity and sustainability within the sector. Assured remunerative prices, improved access to institutional credit, crop diversification, support for sustainable practices, and enhancement in productivity have played a crucial role in the sustained growth observed. Riding on good monsoon, kharif foodgrain production in 2024 is projected at 1647.05 Lakh Metric Tonnes (LMT), suggesting an increase of 89.37 LMT compared to the previous year and 124.59 LMT above the average kharif foodgrain output<sup>4</sup> bodes well for food security. Agricultural income has increased at 5.23 per cent annually over the past decade, compared to 6.24 per cent for non-agricultural income and 5.80 per cent for the overall economy.

India's agriculture is characterised by diversity, with performance varying significantly across different segments and states. As a major global cereal producer, India accounts for 11.6 per cent of the world's total output. However, crop yields in the country are considerably lower compared to those of other leading producers, underscoring the need for productivity improvements. The crop sector has experienced a modest compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 2.1 per cent, from FY13 to FY22. This increase is also largely driven by notable increases in the production of fruits, vegetables, and pulses.

The slower growth rate of oilseeds at 1.9 per cent raises concerns, especially considering India's heavy reliance on imports to satisfy domestic edible oil demands. High-value sectors such as horticulture, livestock, and fisheries have emerged as the primary contributors to the overall growth of agriculture. Among these, the fishery sector has demonstrated the highest compound annual growth rate (CAGR) at 13.67 per cent, followed by livestock with a CAGR of 12.99 per cent<sup>8</sup> during FY15 to FY23(at current prices).

Chart IX.5: International Comparison of Productivity for Selected Crops, 2022

Source: Price Policy for Kharif Crops 2024-25, CACP

Diversity is also seen in inter-state variations in growth observed from 2011-12 to 2020-21. Andhra Pradesh was the leading performer with a CAGR of 8.8 per cent in agriculture and allied sectors, excluding forestry and logging. Madhya Pradesh followed with 6.3 per cent, and Tamil Nadu came in third with 4.8 per cent among major states.

These states have diversified towards crops where yield is high. For example, Andhra Pradesh diversified towards jowar, Madhya Pradesh towards moong and Tamil Nadu towards maize. Even so, there is significant potential to enhance productivity and reduce the yield gap compared to the global average. As we look to the future, it's important to consider how changing dietary preferences, driven by rising incomes, will influence the agricultural sector's growth trajectory. The increasing consumption of non-food grains, particularly horticultural products, livestock, and fisheries, will be significant. Given the perishable nature of these high-value commodities, effective post-harvest management and robust marketing infrastructure are essential. This endeavour should be supported by the active involvement of Farmer Producer Organizations (FPOs), cooperatives, and Self-Help Groups (SHGs). Furthermore, substantial investment from the private sector would also be vital to aid small-scale farmers.

BOX IX.2 : Transforming Rural Economies: The Rise of Horticulture

India's horticulture sector is more productive and profitable than traditional agriculture, emerging as a fast-growing industry. This can be seen from the fact that India is also a leading exporter, shipping 343,982.34 MT of fresh grapes worth ₹3,460.70 crore (USD 417.07 million) globally in 2023-24<sup>10</sup>. Key grape-growing states are Maharashtra, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, and Mizoram. Maharashtra leads in production, contributing over 67 per cent of total output with the highest productivity in 2023-24<sup>11</sup>. Grape cultivation has significantly improved the livelihoods of Nashik farmers where export-quality grapes fetch higher prices (₹65-70/kg) than domestic markets. This economic upliftment has attracted rural youth to grape farming. Farmers have adopted advanced technologies like real-time monitoring systems to ensure optimal grape quality. The Nashik grape story shows how export-oriented agriculture, technology, and collective efforts can transform a region's socio-economic conditions.

The government is implementing a range of initiatives aimed at enhancing agricultural productivity and increasing farmers' incomes, in alignment with the recommendations put forth in the Doubling Farmers' Income (DFI) Report 2016. This report highlighted essential strategies for improving crop and livestock productivity, boosting cropping intensity, and diversifying into high-value crops. Committed to promoting greater input efficiency and adopting sustainable production practices, the government is pursuing initiatives such as Per Drop More Crop (PDMC) and various actions under the National Mission on Sustainable Agriculture (NMSA). These measures include using alternative and organic fertilisers to enhance productivity and sustainability. Furthermore, digital initiatives like the Digital Agriculture Mission and the e-National Agriculture Market (e-NAM) have been launched to encourage the adoption of innovative agricultural technologies and improve price discovery mechanisms. Additionally, the government provides income support to farmers through assured remunerative prices for their produce, alongside programs such as the Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samman Nidhi (PM-KISAN).

Despite the increase in crop production, further enhancements in productivity across various crops and regions are vital for boosting performance and positively influencing farmers' incomes. Productivity is closely linked to on-farm and post-harvest inputs such as improved access to quality seeds, better irrigation facilities, efficient water management practices, effective extension services, soil health improvements, modern post-harvest infrastructure, and accessible markets. Additionally, agricultural price policies play a crucial role in facilitating informed decision-making by protecting farmers from market price volatility and encouraging them to diversify their crops, promoting sustainable agricultural practices.

The Minimum Support Price (MSP) for essential crops such as wheat, rice, pulses, oilseeds, and nutri-cereals acts as a safety net for farmers, reassuring them of a guaranteed minimum price for their crops from the government. This mechanism also serves as a guiding signal for farmers in planning their future crop compositions. In the Union Budget of 2018-19, the government decided the principle of fixing MSP at a level of at least 1.5 times the weighted average cost of production for these crops. The support provides the necessary returns to promote sustainable farming practices and encourage farmers to focus on cultivating key crops. The government has raised the MSP for nutri cereals (Shree Anna), pulses, and oilseeds as part of these initiatives. For the fiscal year FY25, the MSP for arhar and bajra has been increased by 59 per cent and 77 per cent over the weighted average cost of production, respectively. Moreover, the MSP for Masur has risen by 89 per cent, while rapeseed has seen an impressive increase of 98 per cent.

AGRICULTURE CREDIT: A critical input

Providing adequate credit support to all farmers, especially small and marginal farmers and vulnerable sections of society, is crucial to improving agricultural productivity and income.

Chart IX.14: Status of crop loan

Source: Ministry of Agriculture

The Government of India introduced the Kisan Credit Card (KCC) to enable farmers to meet their short-term working capital requirements promptly and hassle-free. This has helped enhance the working capital flow to agriculture and allied sectors. As of March 2024, the country has 7.75 crore operational KCC accounts with a loan outstanding of ₹9.81 lakh crore. KCC was further extended to meet the working capital needs of fisheries and animal husbandry in 2018-19, along with the enhancement of the limit for collateral-free loans to ₹1.6 Lakh. As of 31 March 2024, 1.24 lakh KCC and 44.40 lakh KCC were issued to fisheries and animal husbandry activities, respectively. 9.25 In addition to interventions such as the Modified Interest Subvention Scheme (MISS), which provides short-term agri-loans through KCC for working capital requirements at the concessional interest rate of 7 per cent, the Prompt Repayment Incentive (PRI) provides a 3 per cent incentive to farmers who repay on time. Starting from FY25, the claim processing has been digitised through the Kisan Rin Portal for faster and more efficient capturing and settlement of MISS claims. To further support small and marginal farmers, banks must allocate 40 per cent of their Adjusted Net Bank Credit (ANBC) or Credit Equivalent Amount of Off-Balance Sheet Exposure (CEOBE), whichever is higher, to priority sectors, including agriculture. All the above measures have significantly reduced the reliance on non-institutional credit sources from 90 per cent in 1950 to around 25.0 per cent in FY22.

Source: Ministry of Agriculture

Ground-level credit (GLC) to agriculture has also shown impressive growth with a CAGR of 12.98 per cent from 2014-15 to 2024-25. The GLC has risen from ₹8.45 lakh crore in 2014-15 to ₹25.48 lakh crore in 2023-24. Within this, the share of small and marginal farmers has significantly increased from ₹3.46 lakh crore (41 per cent) to ₹14.39 lakh crore (57 per cent) from 2014-15 to 2023-24.

The government also provides insurance for farmers through the Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana (PMFBY). This scheme acts as a safety net for farmers against crop losses due to natural calamities, pests, and diseases. As the largest crop insurance program in the world in terms of farmer enrolment and the third-largest by premiums, PMFBY offers comprehensive risk coverage from the pre-sowing to post-harvest stages. By ensuring financial stability, the scheme encourages farmers to adopt modern agricultural practices and technologies, ultimately enhancing agricultural productivity and food security. In response to recommendations from various committees, the scheme has recently launched several technological interventions, such as YES-TECH, WINDS, and CROPIC28. These advancements have increased transparency within the scheme ecosystem by minimizing human intervention and fostering greater trust among stakeholders, including implementing States/UTs and insurance companies. The participation of State governments and insurers has increased to 24 and 15, respectively, in FY25, up from 20 and 11 in the 2020-21. Additionally, these interventions have contributed to a 32 per cent reduction in premium rates compared to previous years. As a result, in the FY24 period, the number of enrolled farmers reached 4 crore, a 26 per cent increase from 3.17 crore in the FY23 period. The insured area also expanded to 600 lakh hectares in FY24, reflecting a 19 per cent rise from 500 lakh hectares in FY23. Both the acreage and farmer enrolment figures under the scheme are at an all-time high.

FOOD PROCESSING INDUSTRIES: Critical for the Economy

The food processing industry in India is one of the largest employers within organised manufacturing, accounting for 12.41 per cent of total employment in the organised sector. In the fiscal year FY24, the value of agri-food exports, which includes processed food exports, reached USD 46.44 billion, constituting roughly 11.7 per cent of India's total exports. Notably, the share of processed food exports within agri-food exports has risen from 14.9 per cent in FY18 to 23.4 per cent in FY24. To foster growth in the food processing sector, the Indian government has initiated several key programs, including the Pradhan Mantri Kisan Sampada Yojana (PMKSY). This scheme focuses on developing modern infrastructure and optimising supply chains from farm to retail. By minimising post-harvest losses, increasing processing capabilities, and enhancing export levels, PMKSY aims to promote the overall advancement of the food processing industry. As of 31 October 2024, 1,079 PMKSY projects have been completed.

The Production Linked Incentive Scheme for Food Processing (PLISFPI), launched in 2021, seeks to cultivate globally competitive food processing leaders by facilitating branding and marketing initiatives in international markets. By 31 October 2024, 171 applications had been approved under this scheme, with beneficiaries investing ₹8,910 crore and receiving ₹1,084.01 crore in incentives. 9.52 Furthermore, to provide comprehensive support—including technical, financial, and business assistance for establishing or upgrading micro food processing enterprises—the Pradhan Mantri Formalisation of Micro Food Processing Enterprises (PMFME) scheme was launched in 2020. As of 31 October 2024, the scheme has received 407,819 applications, with loans totalling ₹8.63 thousand crore sanctioned to 108,580 applicants. Additionally, the programme has successfully trained 672 Master Trainers, 1,120 District Level Trainers, and 87,477 beneficiaries across 36 states and union territories.

FOOD MANAGEMENT: Enabling Food Security

The basic concept of food security is to ensure that there is access to basic food for their active and healthy lives. It is characterised by the availability, access, utilisation, and stability of food supply. While the government has long tackled household food security through the Public Distribution System (PDS) and Targeted PDS (TPDS), the National Food Security Act (NFSA) 2013 and the Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Anna Yojana (PMGKAY) marked a fundamental shift in the approach to food security. That is transitioning from a welfare-based to a rights-based approach. NFSA act legally entitles up to 75 per cent of the rural population and up to 50 per cent of the urban population to receive foodgrain, free of cost, under the Targeted Public Distribution System, which, as per Census 2011, comes to 81.35 crore persons. Therefore, about two-thirds of the population is covered under the Act to receive highly subsidised food grains. In addition, PMGKAY was introduced to alleviate the suffering of the poor and vulnerable caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The allocation of free food grain under PMGKAY is in addition to the regular allocation for around 80 crore beneficiaries. The provision of free food grains under PMGKAY for another five years, with effect from 1st January 2024, reflects the long-term commitment and vision of the Government for addressing National food and nutrition security.

To enhance the efficiency of the Public Distribution System (PDS), the government is fully committed to achieving 100 per cent e-KYC compliance nationwide. This aligns with the One Nation, One Ration Card (ONORC) scheme, allowing beneficiaries to complete electronic know your customer e-KYC anywhere, regardless of their home state. Beneficiaries can authenticate their Aadhaar biometrics at any Fair Price Shop (FPS), making it especially convenient for migrant workers to access their entitlements. To facilitate post-harvest lending for farmers, especially small and marginal farmers, the government has approved the Credit Guarantee Scheme for electronic-negotiable warehouse receipt (e-NWR)-based Pledge Financing (CGS-NPF). Under this scheme, farmers can obtain loans against e-NWRs issued for agricultural and horticultural commodities stored in accredited warehouses. The scheme covers the loss incurred by the bank due to credit and warehouseman risk. The scheme will help in increasing post-harvest lending against e-NWRs and thereby play a role in improving farmers' income.

India's agricultural sector, despite encountering various challenges, remains a crucial pillar for economic growth and ensuring food security for the nation. This sector has consistently demonstrated remarkable resilience, evidenced by stable growth rates supported by a range of government initiatives to enhance productivity, diversify crop portfolios, and provide essential social security support for farmers. The increasing significance of allied sectors, such as animal husbandry, dairying, and fisheries, underscores the importance of diversification in activities and sources of income for boosting their income levels and building resilience. By tapping into these complementary sectors, farmers can create additional streams of revenue that can buffer them against the inherent volatility of traditional crop production. However, the sector is not without its challenges. Issues like climate change and water scarcity present significant obstacles that require focused and targeted interventions. Promoting agricultural production patterns and practices that align with the specific agro-climatic conditions and natural resource availabilities of different regions across the country is vital. Investment in research and development, especially on climate-resistant varieties, improved agriculture practices, diversification to high-yield and climate-resilient crops, and micro-irrigation, can yield sustainable long-term benefits. The widespread adoption of digital technologies in agriculture will unlock further possibilities for enhancing productivity.

Improving price discovery and market efficiency is another critical aspect that necessitates attention. Strengthening market infrastructure is essential to facilitate this improvement. This can be achieved by effectively utilising the e-NAM, a platform for farmers to access broader markets. Furthermore, supporting the establishment and operational capabilities of FPOs and enabling cooperatives to play a more active and influential role in agricultural markets is paramount to fostering an inclusive market environment. 9.59 Government initiatives like PM-KISAN, which provides direct income support to farmers, and Pradhan Mantri Kisan Maandhan Yojna (PMKMY), which offers pension schemes for farmers, have successfully contributed to bolstering farmers' incomes and enhancing their social security safety nets. More than 11 crore farmers have been benefitted under PM-KISAN and 23.61 lakh farmers had enrolled under PMKMY as of 31st October 2024. In addition to these efforts, reforms such as e-KYC compliance under the ONORC initiative and credit guarantee schemes for e-NWR financing address systemic inefficiencies that have historically plagued the agricultural sector. Moreover, there is a concerted focus on modernising food grain storage systems, particularly in remote and hilly areas, which reflects a strong commitment to improving the overall supply chain infrastructure.

Wheat, Chana Dal and Maize grains processing into flour involves several key steps. First, harvested grains are cleaned to remove impurities such as stones, chaff, and other foreign materials. The cleaned grains are then tempered with water to achieve the desired moisture content, making it easier to separate the bran and germ from the endosperm. Next, the grains are milled through a series of rollers that progressively break down the grain into finer particles. The endosperm is ground into flour, while the bran and germ are sifted out and collected as by-products. The resulting flour is then subjected to quality control checks to ensure it meets specified standards before packaging and distribution. The by-product of the aforesaid process, primarily wheat bran, is not wasted. Bran, rich in fiber, is often sold as a nutritional supplement for animal feed. The by-products are valuable commodities, generating additional revenue streams and contributing to waste minimization in the wheat processing.

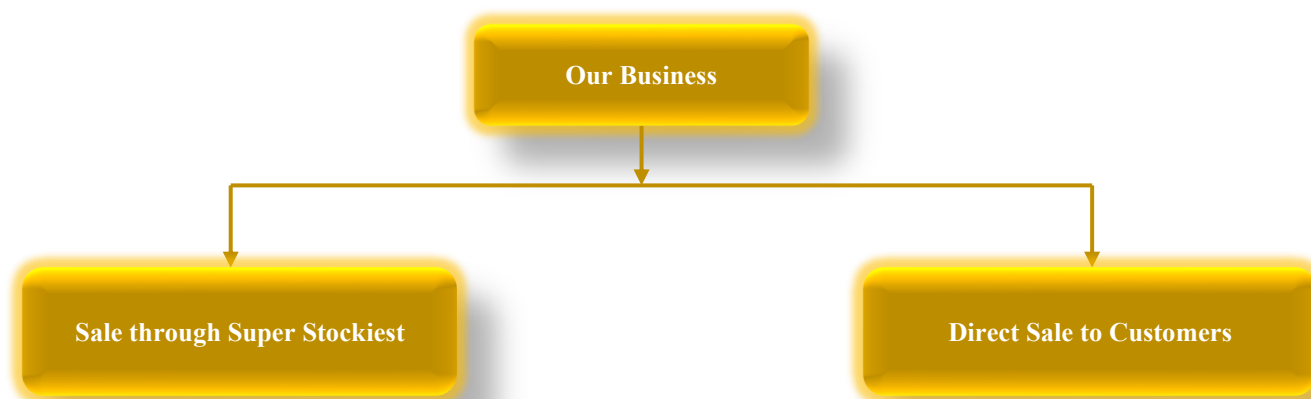

Our Company is also engaged in the business of trading of vegetables such as potatoes and tomatoes. The supply and distribution of vegetables is carried out within the state of Madhya Pradesh. The Company sources these vegetables from suppliers, ensuring good quality and consistent supply. Our operations include procurement, quality control and distribution to meet the needs of market.

OUR PRODUCTS

We offer a range of food processing products to our customers, including various wheat-based items. Our product lineup includes Atta-wheat flour, Sortex Wheat, Broken Wheat, and other flour such as Gram Flour (Besan) and Maize Flour. Each product caters to different culinary needs and preferences.

Wheat Products:

Atta-wheat flour: Atta is made from whole wheat grains and retains all parts of the grain, including the bran, germ, and endosperm. This makes it a more nutritious option compared to refined flours, as it preserves the fiber, vitamins, and minerals found in wheat. The process of making atta ensures that the flour is coarse, suitable for making traditional unleavened breads, and maintains the natural color and taste of wheat. It is available in following SKUs and prices:

SKU	MRP
50 Kg	₹ 1600/-
30 Kg	₹ 960/-

Process of making Atta – wheat flour:

a) Selection and Cleaning:

- Wheat Selection: Wheat grains are selected based on their type, color, and hardness. Hard wheat varieties are typically preferred for making atta due to their higher gluten content.
- Cleaning: The selected wheat grains are thoroughly cleaned to remove impurities such as dirt, stones, and other foreign materials. This cleaning process often involves the use of air streams, sieves, and aspirators.

b) Conditioning:

- Moisture Adjustment: The cleaned wheat grains are conditioned by adjusting their moisture content. This is done by adding water to the grains and allowing them to rest for a specific period. The conditioning helps in achieving the desired texture and quality of the flour.
- Resting: The conditioned wheat is left to rest for a period to allow the moisture to evenly distribute, making the grains easier to grind and ensuring better milling efficiency.

c) Milling:

- First Stage - Coarse Grinding: The conditioned wheat is fed into a roller mill, where it is first ground coarsely. In this stage, the wheat grains are crushed to break them into smaller particles.
- Separation: After coarse grinding, the flour is sifted using a series of sieves and air classifiers to separate the bran (the outer layer), germ (the nutrient-rich core), and endosperm (the starchy part).
- Second Stage - Fine Grinding: The endosperm is further ground into finer particles. The aim is to achieve a consistent texture suitable for making atta.
- Blending: The ground flour is blended to achieve a uniform texture and quality. This may involve mixing different batches or adjusting the particle size.

d) Sifting and Classification:

- Sifting: The ground flour is sifted through mesh screens to remove any remaining coarse particles and ensure a fine, uniform texture.
- Classification: The atta is classified based on its fineness and quality. Different grades of atta may be produced depending on the milling process and the intended use.

e) Packaging:

- Quality Check: The final atta is subjected to quality checks to ensure it meets the required standards for texture, color, and nutritional content.
- Packaging: The atta is then packaged in clean, dry, and airtight containers or bags to maintain its freshness and prevent contamination.

f) Storage and Distribution:

- Storage: The packaged atta is stored in a controlled environment to prevent moisture absorption and spoilage.
- Distribution: The besan is distributed through super stockists to wholesalers and retailers, ready for use in cooking and baking.

2. Sortex Wheat: Sortex wheat refers to wheat that has undergone a sorting process using optical sensors and cameras to remove impurities like stones, dirt, and damaged or discoloured grains. Sortex wheat is premium, cleaned wheat processed through optical sorting to ensure quality and purity. It is available in following SKUs and prices:

SKU	MRP
30 Kg	₹ 1020/-

Process of Sortex Wheat:

The process uses optical sensors and cameras to analyze the color, shape, and size of each grain, allowing it to distinguish between the desired wheat and unwanted impurities. Based on the analysis, the machine automatically ejects defective grains, stones and other unwanted materials.

The wheat processing begins by storing the wheat in a storage tank, after which it is transferred via an elevator to the grader. The grader removes large impurities like stones and ropes and the cleaned wheat moves to the next machine. A magnet is used to remove any dirt, followed by a gravity separator that sends heavier wheat to the Sortex machine, while rejecting the lighter grains. The Sortex checks each grain, allowing only pure wheat to pass. The wheat then goes to the classifier, where smaller grains are separated and sent to a silo. Once in the silo, the wheat is packed into bags, with the remaining wheat sent to the destoner machine for flour production. The sorted wheat undergoes a final inspection to ensure it meets the required quality and standards.

3. Broken Wheat- Broken Wheat, also referred to a cracked wheat or wheat splits, is a coarsely milled wheat product used as a high-energy ingredient in poultry feed formulations. It is produced by crushing whole wheat kernels into smaller fragments while retaining the bran, germ, and endosperm, making it a nutritionally rich and digestible feed component. Due to its balanced nutrient profile, palatability, and cost-effectiveness, Broken Wheat is widely used in the poultry industry, particularly in layer, broiler, and breeder feed diets.

SKU	MRP
50 Kg	₹ 950/-

Process of Broken Wheat:

a) Selection and Cleaning:

- Wheat Selection: Dry and matured wheat grains are selected based on their type, color, and hardness. Hard wheat varieties are typically preferred for feed formulation.
- Cleaning: The selected wheat grains are thoroughly cleaned to remove impurities such as dirt, stones, and other foreign materials. This cleaning process often involves the use of air streams, sieves, and aspirators.

b) Conditioning:

Conditioning involves adding controlled moisture to the cleaned wheat to achieve optimal softness for cracking, to soften the outer bran layer, to improve milling efficiency, to achieve uniform particle size during crushing and to prevent excessive powder formation.

c) Milling:

Conditioned wheat is fed into roller mills, where it is crushed to produce coarse fragments. The milling process is adjusted for poultry feed requirements. The grain is broken into medium to coarse granules. Heat generation is minimized to preserve nutritional integrity. Bran, germ and endosperm remain intact, enhancing nutritive value. Particle size is controlled to improve poultry digestibility. Depending on the desired grain size, the wheat may pass through one or more controlled crushing stages.

d) Sifting:

The crushed product is conveyed to a multi-deck sifter, where it is separated into different particle sizes suitable for poultry feed formulations.

e) Packaging:

- Quality Check: The final batch is subjected to quality checks to ensure it meets the required standards for moisture, size, and nutritional content.
- Packaging: The finished broken wheat is then packaged in clean, dry, and airtight containers or bags to maintain its freshness and prevent contamination.

f) Storage and Distribution:

- Storage: The packaged broken wheat is stored in a controlled environment to prevent moisture absorption and spoilage.
- Distribution: The broken wheat is distributed through super stockists to wholesalers and retailers for poultry feed.

4. Wheat Bran- Wheat Bran is the outer layer of the wheat kernel that is removed during the milling process. It contains a significant amount of fiber, including both soluble and insoluble fibers, which are beneficial for digestive health. wheat bran is rich in dietary fiber, protein, B-complex vitamins, essential fatty acids, and minerals such as iron, phosphorus, magnesium, and zinc. Its high fiber content supports digestive health, while its protein and micro-nutrient profile make it a preferred ingredient for cattle feed, poultry feed, and allied livestock nutrition formulations. It is available in following SKUs and prices: <table border="1" data-bbox="193 1227 890 1294"> <thead> <tr> <th>SKU</th><th>MRP</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>50 Kg</td><td>₹ 1100/-</td></tr> </tbody> </table>	SKU	MRP	50 Kg	₹ 1100/-

50 Kg	₹ 1100/-
Process of Wheat Bran: The production of wheat bran involves selecting and cleaning wheat, conditioning it, and then milling it to separate the bran from the endosperm and germ. The bran is further processed and packaged to ensure it retains its nutritional benefits and is suitable for various applications. Wheat Bran is a valuable byproduct of the flour milling process, known for its high fiber content and is utilized as a key raw material in the formulation of cattle feed.

Other Flour Products:

1. Gram flour (Besan): It is a fine, protein-rich flour milled from premium-quality chana dal (gram). It is utilized in the preparation of various traditional snacks, bakery products, confectioneries, instant mixes, and savory items. It is also valued for its natural binding, thickening, and flavor-enhancing characteristics. It is available in following SKUs and prices: <table border="1" data-bbox="193 1783 890 1850"> <thead> <tr> <th>SKU</th><th>MRP</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>50 Kg</td><td>₹ 4400/-</td></tr> </tbody> </table>	SKU	MRP	50 Kg	₹ 4400/-
SKU	MRP
50 Kg	₹ 4400/-

Process of making Gram Flour (Besan):

a) Selection and Cleaning:

- Chana Dal (Gram) Selection: Chana Dal is selected based on their type, color, and hardness. The grains are tested for moisture, purity, size before acceptance.
- Cleaning: The raw gram is thoroughly cleaned to remove impurities such as dirt, stones, and other foreign materials. This cleaning process often involves the use of air streams, sieves, and aspirators.

b) Conditioning:

- Moisture Adjustment: The cleaned grams are lightly conditioned by adjusting their moisture content. This is done by adding water to the grams and allowing them to rest for a specific period. The conditioning helps soften the outer coat, making dehusking easier and enhancing flour texture.
- Resting: The conditioned gram is left to rest for a period to allow the moisture to evenly distribute, making the grains easier to grind and ensuring better milling efficiency.

c) Dehusking/Splitting:

The cleaned gram is fed to emery roller machine. The outer skin is removed and the gram is split into two halves (chana dal). Husk and broken material are separated using Destoner.

d) Grinding/Milling:

- Coarse Grinding: The dehusked gram (dal) is fed into roller mills. Grinding is performed in controlled stages to prevent overheating and preserve nutritional properties.
- Fine Grinding: The dal is ground to produce a fine powder. The flour is blended to achieve a uniform texture and quality. The Milling parameters (speed, size, temperature) are carefully controlled to maintain optimum fineness, uniform particle size, natural taste and minimal heat generation to avoid quality deterioration.

e) Sifting and Classification:

- Sifting: The ground flour is sifted through mesh screens to remove any remaining coarse particles and ensure a fine, uniform texture.
- Classification: The gram flour (besan) is classified based on its fineness and quality. Different grades of besan may be produced depending on the milling process and the intended use.

f) Packaging:

- Quality Check: The final gram flour is subjected to quality checks to ensure it meets the required standards for texture, color, and nutritional content.
- Packaging: The gram flour (besan) is then packaged in clean, dry, and airtight containers or bags to maintain its freshness and prevent contamination.

g) Storage and Distribution:

- Storage: The packaged besan is stored in a controlled environment to prevent moisture absorption and spoilage.
- Distribution: The besan is distributed through super stockists to wholesalers and retailers, ready for use in cooking and baking.

- 2. Maize Flour- Maize flour is a finely milled, nutrient-rich product derived from high-quality dried maize (corn) kernels. This flour contains essential nutrients such as carbohydrates, dietary fibre, plant-based proteins, vitamins (especially B-complex vitamins), minerals (including iron, magnesium, and phosphorus), and beneficial antioxidants like carotenoids. With its gluten-free characteristic, maize flour is widely preferred in gluten-sensitive diets and specialized food formulations. It is available in following SKUs and prices:

SKU	MRP
30 Kg	₹ 1200/-

Process of making Maize Flour:

a) Selection and Cleaning:

- Maize kernels Selection: Dried Maize kernels are selected based on their size, hardness and moisture content and colour. The grains are tested for moisture, purity, size before acceptance. This ensures that maize is safe, uniform and suitable for efficient milling.
- Cleaning: The maize kernels are transferred to a pre-cleaning section equipped with mechanized equipment to remove dust, impurities and foreign particles. Pre-cleaning helps protect downstream machinery and ensures better product quality.

b) Conditioning:

Conditioning involves adding controlled moisture to the cleaned wheat to achieve optimal softness for cracking, to soften the outer bran layer, to improve milling efficiency and achieve uniform particle size during crushing.

c) Degermination and Dehulling:

The conditioned maize kernel is passed through a degerminator to break the kernels and loosen the bran and germ from the endosperm. The cleaned, starchy endosperm pieces are left for the final milling stages.

d) Grinding/Milling:

The clean endosperm chunks are gradually reduced in size by passing them through a series of roller mills. The rollers crush the grits into finer particles.

e) Sifting and Classification:

After each pass through the roller mills, the resulting material is sent to sifting screens (plansifters). These screens separate the material into different particle sizes:

- Flour: The finest particles that meet the quality standard are removed as the final product.
- Grits/M Meal: Medium-sized particles may be bagged as coarser cornmeal or grits.
- Oversize: Any particles still too coarse (or containing attached bran) are sent back to the roller mills for further grinding (re-milling).

f) Packaging:

- Quality Check: The final maize flour is subjected to quality checks to ensure it meets the required standards for texture, color, and nutritional content.
- Packaging: The maize flour is then packaged in clean, dry, and airtight containers or bags to maintain its freshness and prevent contamination.

g) Storage and Distribution:

- Storage: The packaged maize flour is stored in a controlled environment to prevent moisture absorption and spoilage.
- Distribution: The maize flour is distributed through super stockists to wholesalers and retailers, ready for use in cooking and baking.

PRODUCTION PROCESS OF WHEAT PRODUCTS AND OTHER FLOUR PRODUCTS

A. Raw Material:

The raw material used in the processing of wheat products, gram flour (besan) and maize flour are wheat, chana dal and maize kernels. We procure raw material directly from farmers. Advanced processing techniques transform grains into a diverse product line like Atta-wheat flour, Sortex Wheat, Broken Wheat, Wheat Bran, Gram Flour (Besan) and Maize Flour. Our processing ensures good quality, with strict adherence to safety standards.

Flow Chart of Procurement of Raw Material:

Process of Procurement of Raw Material:

The process of sourcing and handling raw material for a processing unit involves several critical stages, ensuring the quality and consistency of the final product. The following steps outline the typical flow:

1. Direct Farmer Engagement: Farmers bring a sample of their grains to our processing unit. This direct engagement allows the unit to establish relationships with the farmers and ensure a reliable source of raw material. Direct procurement from farmers helps in maintaining the quality and traceability of the wheat.
2. Initial Quality Control (QC) of Sample: Upon arrival, the sample undergoes a quality control check. This initial QC step involves assessing the wheat's moisture content, grain size, color, and overall quality. The sample is tested for contaminants, foreign materials, and other quality parameters to ensure it meets the unit's standards. Only samples that pass this quality check proceed to the next step.
3. Purchase of Raw Material: Once the sample passes the quality control tests, the unit negotiates the purchase of the grain from the farmer. The agreed-upon quantity and price thereafter is finalized. This step includes arranging for the logistics and transport of the raw material from the farm to the unit.
4. Delivery of Raw Material: The purchased grain is delivered to the unit. During transport, measures are taken to protect the grains from moisture, pests, and other potential contaminants. Proper handling during delivery ensures that the grain maintains its quality and integrity.
5. Quality Control Upon Arrival: Upon arrival at the unit, the delivered grains undergo a second quality control inspection. This QC step is crucial to verify that the bulk shipment matches the quality of the initial sample. The grains are tested for various parameters, including moisture content, purity, and the presence of any contaminants or foreign materials.
6. Storage: After passing the final quality control checks, the grains are stored in clean, dry silos or storage facilities. Proper storage conditions are maintained to protect the wheat from moisture, pests, and other factors that could compromise its quality. The storage environment is monitored to ensure the grains remain in optimal condition until they are processed.

By adhering to this structured flow of raw material from direct farmer engagement to final quality control, the wheat processing unit ensures that only the good quality wheat is used in production. This meticulous process helps maintain the integrity of the products, enhances customer satisfaction, and supports sustainable relationships with farmers.

B. Cleaning:

In our wheat processing unit, the cleaning process is fully automated, ensuring high efficiency and precision with no human intervention. This comprehensive cleaning process includes the following steps:

Flow Chart of Cleaning Process:

Process of Cleaning:

1. Sieving: The initial step involves sieving, where the grain is passed through a series of sieves of varying mesh sizes. This process effectively separates large impurities like stones, sticks, and straw from the grains. Sieving ensures that only the appropriate-sized grains move forward in the cleaning process.
2. Threshing: Threshing is the next step, where any remaining husks and chaff are separated from the grains. This step is crucial for ensuring that the grain is free from external coverings and can be processed efficiently.
3. Destoning: Following threshing, the grain undergoes destoning. This process uses density-based separation techniques to remove stones and other heavy impurities that may be similar in size to the grains. Destoning ensures that only the grains are processed further, protecting the milling equipment from potential damage.
4. Magnetic Separation: In the magnetic separation stage, magnetic separators are used to remove any metallic contaminants that may be present in the grain. This step is vital for ensuring the safety and quality of the final product, as metallic contaminants can pose health risks and damage processing equipment.
5. Dampening: The dampening process involves adding a controlled amount of water to the grains. This step helps to achieve the desired moisture content, which is essential for the milling process. Dampening also softens the grain, making it easier to separate the bran and germ from the endosperm during milling.
6. Brushing: After dampening, the grains undergo brushing. In this step, brushes are used to clean the surface of the grains, removing any remaining dirt, dust, and loose bran particles. Brushing enhances the cleanliness of the grains, ensuring a higher quality end product.
7. Air Draft Cleaning: The final cleaning step is air draft cleaning, where powerful air currents are used to blow away light impurities such as dust, chaff, and small bits of straw. This process ensures that the grains are thoroughly cleaned and free from any lightweight contaminants.

Throughout the entire cleaning process, advanced sensors and control systems monitor each stage, ensuring optimal performance and consistency. The fully automated nature of our cleaning process eliminates the need for human intervention, reducing the risk of contamination and ensuring the good quality standards of hygiene and efficiency.

By leveraging automation, our unit maintains a consistent and good-quality cleaning process, thereby resulting into production of good quality products. This meticulous and automated approach guarantees that only the clean and pure wheat grains are used in our production, contributing to the better quality of our final products.

C. Flour Milling:

Flour Milling is the process of converting grains into flour. It involves a series of steps designed to separate the different components of the grain kernel (endosperm, bran, and germ) and then grind the endosperm into a fine powder. Following are the steps involved in the milling process:

Flow Chart of Flour Milling Process:

Process of Flour Milling:

1. Initial Cleaning (Removal of Foreign Matter, Soil, Dust, etc.): The first stage involves cleaning the raw grain to remove foreign matter, soil, dust, and other impurities. This ensures that the grain entering the processing line is free from external contaminants.
2. Secondary Cleaning (Removal of fragments, Broken, Damaged Grains): In this step, the cleaned grain undergoes a more refined cleaning process to remove fragments, broken, and damaged grains. This ensures that only high-quality grain proceeds further.
3. Flour Processing:
  - ❖ Inspection of Grain: The grain intended for flour is inspected to ensure it meets quality standards.
  - ❖ Grinding of Grain: The inspected grain is ground to the required consistency for flour.
  - ❖ Separation of Bran from Flour: After grinding, the bran is separated from the flour.
  - ❖ Sieving: The flour is sieved to achieve the desired texture and consistency.
  - ❖ Packing and Application of Batch Number and Date: The final product is packed and labelled with batch numbers and dates for traceability.

In our fully automated flour mill, each step in this process is controlled by advanced machinery and sensors, ensuring precision and consistency without human intervention. This automation enhances efficiency, maintains high quality, and ensures that the final products meet stringent standards.

COMPETITION

The wheat processing and other flour products industry in India is characterised by intense competition, fragmented market structure, and the presence of both organised and unorganised players. Our Company competes with a wide range of entities, including large integrated FMCG companies, regional millers, local chakki units, and contract manufacturers. Competition is primarily based on factors such as product quality, consistency, pricing, distribution reach, brand recognition, procurement capabilities, operational efficiencies, and customer relationships. The organised sector includes established national players engaged in the production of packaged atta, maida, sooji, rawa, bran and value-added wheat-based products. These players typically benefit from strong brand positioning, diversified product portfolios, pan-India distribution networks, and access to long-term supply contracts with modern retail, institutional buyers, and e-commerce platforms. The unorganised sector, comprising thousands of small mills and local chakkis, competes largely on price and geographical proximity, catering to localised demand with relatively lower operating costs and minimal marketing expenditure.

Our Company also faces competition from specialty mills and contract manufacturers that supply to bakeries, foodservice companies, snack manufacturers, and ingredient processors. These entities often compete on customised formulations, consistent quality parameters, bulk pricing, and delivery reliability. However, the Company possesses a competitive edge due to its fully automated manufacturing system. While competition remains robust, our Company believes that its integrated operations, experienced management, quality-focused processes, efficient procurement practices, and established distribution relationships position it favourably within the industry. However, there can be no assurance that our competitors will not expand their capacities, introduce alternative products, adopt aggressive pricing strategies, or leverage stronger brands, any of which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

- Established Procurement Network: Long-standing relationships with grain traders, mandis and suppliers support timely procurement of quality grains at competitive prices, reducing raw material volatility risks.

Weaknesses:

- Storage and Pest Management Challenges: Grains require temperature controlled or fumigated storage. Infestation can lead to losses, recalls or product damage.
- Technological Obsolescence: Rapid advancements in milling technology require continuous investment to remain competitive.
- Working Capital Intensive Operations: Grain processing requires maintaining adequate inventory of raw materials and finished goods. This increases working capital requirements and may affect liquidity during cyclical or seasonal demand fluctuations.
- Waste Management: Managing by-products like bran and other milling waste can be a challenge and may require additional investment in processing or disposal.

Opportunities:

- Growing Demand for Processed Foods and Baked Goods: Increasing urbanization and changing lifestyles lead to a higher demand for convenience foods that use wheat flour as a primary ingredient.
- Government Initiatives: promoting food processing, exports, or providing subsidies/tax benefits for modernization can create growth opportunities.
- Focus on Sustainable Practices: Implementing eco-friendly processes, waste reduction strategies, and utilizing renewable energy can enhance brand image and attract environmentally conscious consumers.
- Technological Advancement: Adopting real-time data monitoring and AI/ML for process optimization, quality control, and predictive maintenance can enhance productivity and operational control.

Threats:

- Intense Competition and Price Sensitivity: The industry faces strong competition from organised FMCG brands, regional, local and global millers. Price competition may impact margins in commoditised product categories.
- Raw Material Price Volatility: Fluctuations in grain prices due to climatic conditions, government procurement policies, MSP changes or international market dynamics may impact profitability.
- Regulatory and Policy Risks: The food processing sectors are affected by FSSAI regulations, food safety standards, export restrictions, and procurement or storage policies, any of which may impact operations.
- Supply Chain Disruptions: Disruptions due to transport constraints, labour shortages, or adverse weather can affect timely procurement or delivery of products.

- Shifting Dietary Trends: Increasing popularity of gluten-free and low-carb/keto diets thereby leading to a sudden shift in dietary trends could reduce overall wheat and other flour consumption.

Wheat, Chana Dal and Maize grains processing into flour involves several key steps. First, harvested grains are cleaned to remove impurities such as stones, chaff, and other foreign materials. The cleaned grains are then tempered with water to achieve the desired moisture content, making it easier to separate the bran and germ from the endosperm. Next, the grains are milled through a series of rollers that progressively break down the grain into finer particles. The endosperm is ground into flour, while the bran and germ are sifted out and collected as by-products. The resulting flour is then subjected to quality control checks to ensure it meets specified standards before packaging and distribution. The by-product of the aforesaid process, primarily wheat bran, is not wasted. Bran, rich in fiber, is often sold as a nutritional supplement for animal feed. The by-products are valuable commodities, generating additional revenue streams and contributing to waste minimization in the wheat processing.

Current investments are carried at lower of cost and fair value determined on an individual basis. On disposal of an investment, the difference between its carrying amount and net disposal proceeds is charged or credited to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

f. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT AND INTANGIBLE ASSETS*(i) Tangible Assets

Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation, and accumulated impairment loss, if any. Historical cost comprises of the purchase price including duties and non-refundable taxes, borrowing cost if capitalization criteria are met, directly attributable expenses incurred to bring the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of being operated in the manner intended by management and initial estimate of decommissioning, restoring and similar liabilities.

Subsequent costs related to an item of property, plant and equipment are recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognized when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are recognized in statement of profit and loss during the reporting period when they are incurred.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. The gains or losses arising from de-recognition are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is de-recognized.

g. DEPRECIATION AND AMORTISATION

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is provided on Straight Line basis using the rates arrived at based on the useful lives specified in the Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013. Building	30 Years
Plant and Machinery	15 Years

Office Equipment	5 Years
Motor Vehicles	8 Years

*The useful life has been assessed based on technical evaluation, taking into account the nature of the asset and the estimated usage basis management's best judgement of economic benefits from those classes of assets.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of Property, Plant and Equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Depreciation and amortisation on assets acquired / disposed of during the period/year is provided on pro-rata basis with reference to the date of acquisition / disposal.

Annexure 4: Statement of Notes to the Restated Financial Information

h. INVENTORIES:

Inventories of traded goods are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost comprises of all costs of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition . Cost formula used is FIFO/weighted average basis.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated cost necessary to make the sale.

i. IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS:

The Company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) net selling price and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining net selling price, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used.

The Company bases its impairment calculation on detailed budgets and forecast calculations which are prepared separately for each of the Company's cash-generating units to which the individual assets are allocated. These budgets and forecast calculations are generally covering a period of five years. For longer periods, a long term growth rate is calculated and applied to project future cash flows after the fifth year.

Impairment losses of continuing operations are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

An assessment is made at each reporting date as to whether there is any indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the Company estimates the asset's or cash-generating unit's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Annexure 4: Statement of Notes to the Restated Financial Information

j. RETIREMENT BENEFITS:

(i) Short-term employee benefits

Short term employee benefits are recognised as an expense at the undiscounted amount in the statement of Profit and loss for the year which includes benefits like salary, wages, bonus and are recognised as expenses in the period in which the employee renders the related service

(ii) Post employment benefits:

Defined Contribution Plan

'Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme. The Company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund. The Company recognises contribution payable to the provident fund scheme as an expenditure, when an employee renders the related service. If the contribution payable to the scheme for service received before the balance sheet date exceeds the contribution already paid, the deficit payable to the scheme is recognised as a liability after deducting the contribution already paid. If the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for services received before the balance sheet date, then excess is recognised as an asset to the extent that the pre payment will lead to, for example, a reduction in future payment or a cash refund.

Defined benefit Plans

Unfunded Plan: The Company has a defined benefit plan for Post-employment benefit in the form of Gratuity. Liability for the above defined benefit plan is provided on the basis of valuation, as at the Balance Sheet date, carried out by an independent actuary. The actuarial method used for measuring the liability is the Projected Unit Credit method.

Accumulated leave, which is expected to be utilised within the next 12 months, is treated as short-term employee benefit. The Company measures the expected cost of such absences as the additional amount that it expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the reporting date.

'The Company recognises termination benefit as a liability and an expense when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. If the termination benefits fall due more than 12 months after the balance sheet date, they are measured at present value of future cash flows using the discount rate determined by reference to market yields at the balance sheet date on government bonds.

k. BORROWING COST

Borrowing costs are interest, commitment charges and other costs incurred by an enterprise in connection with Short Term/ Long Term borrowing of funds. Borrowing cost directly attributable to acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as a part of the cost of the assets, upto the date the asset is ready for its intended use. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit/(loss) after tax attributable to Equity Shareholders (including the post tax effect of extra ordinary items, if any) as adjusted for dividend, interest and other charges to expense or income relating to the dilutive potential equity shares, by the weighted average number of equity shares which could have been issued on conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. Potential equity shares are deemed to be dilutive only if their conversion to equity shares would decrease the net profit per share from continuing ordinary operations. Potential dilutive equity shares are deemed to be converted as at the beginning of the period, unless they have been issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period.

m. TAXATION:

Provision is made for current tax and based on tax liability computed in accordance with relevant tax laws applicable to the Company. Provision is made for deferred tax for all timing difference arising between taxable incomes & accounting income at currently enacted or substantively enacted tax rates, as the case may be. Deferred tax assets (other than in situation of unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward losses) are recognized only if there is reasonable certainty that they will be realized and are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each Balance Sheet date. Deferred tax assets, in situation of unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward losses under tax laws are recognised only to the extent that where is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be recognised. Deferred Tax Assets and Deferred Tax Liability are been offset wherever the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liability and where the Deferred Tax Asset and Deferred Tax Liability relate to Income taxes is levied by the same taxation authority.

n. PROVISIONS, CONTINGENT LIABILITIES AND CONTINGENT ASSETS:

(i) Provisions

A provisions is recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past event, if it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of obligation.

(ii) Contingent Liability

The accounting policies adopted for segment reporting are in line with the accounting policies of the Company. Segment revenue, segment expenses, segment assets and segment liabilities have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the segment.

Annexure 4: Statement of Notes to the Restated Financial Information

p. CASH & CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash & cash equivalents comprise cash and cash on deposit with banks and corporations. The company considers all highly liquid investments with a remaining maturity at the date of purchase of three months or less and that are readily convertible to known amount of cash to be cash equivalents.

q. LEASES

Leases where the Lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the Leased Asset, are classified as 'Operating Leases'. Lease rentals with respect to assets taken on 'Operating Lease' are charged to Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight line basis over the lease term.

Leases which effectively transfer to the Company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to the ownership of the leased item are classified as 'Finance Lease'. Assets acquired on Finance Lease which substantially transfer all the risks and rewards of ownership to the Company are capitalized as assets by the Company at the lower of the fair value and the present value of the minimum lease payment and a liability is created for an equivalent amount. Lease rentals payable is apportioned between the liability and finance charge so as to obtain a constant periodic rate of interest on the outstanding liability for each year.

r. Government Grants

Government grants / subsidies received towards specific fixed assets have been deducted from the gross value of the concerned fixed assets and grant / subsidies received during the year towards revenue expenses have been reduced from respective expenses.

Under the same, Project Unit Credit (PUC) Method is used to assess the plan liabilities, including those related to death-in-service and incapacity benefits. Under this method a projected accrued benefit is calculated at the beginning of the year and again at the end of the year for each benefit that will accrue for all active members of the plan. The projected accrued benefit is based on the plans accrual formula and service as of the beginning or end of the year, but using final compensation, projected to the age at which the employee is assumed to exit. The plan liability is actuarial present value of the projected accrued benefits as on date of valuation.

This approach ensures that our processing unit operates with zero waste and zero discharge. We currently operate with a modern, integrated flour processing unit equipped with advanced milling and cleaning technology located at Plot No.5, Industrial Area, Apparel Cluster, Bijepur, Indore, Madhya Pradesh-452002 with an installed capacity of 56100 MTPA, where the production of our products is carried out. Wheat, Chana Dal and Maize grains processing into flour involves several key steps. First, harvested grains are cleaned to remove impurities such as stones, chaff, and other foreign materials. The cleaned grains are then tempered with water to achieve the desired moisture content, making it easier to separate the bran and germ from the endosperm. Next, the grains are milled through a series of rollers that progressively break down the grain into finer particles. The endosperm is ground into flour, while the bran and germ are sifted out and collected as by-products. The resulting flour is then subjected to quality control checks to ensure it meets specified standards before packaging and distribution. The by-product of the aforesaid process, primarily wheat bran, is not wasted. Bran, rich in fiber, is often sold as a nutritional supplement for animal feed. The by-products are valuable commodities, generating additional revenue streams and contributing to waste minimization in the wheat processing.

Our Company is also engaged in the business of trading of vegetables such as potatoes and tomatoes. The supply and distribution of vegetables is carried out within the state of Madhya Pradesh. #### Phased implementation of Unified Payments Interface

SEBI has issued the UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of, amongst others equity shares. Pursuant to the SEBI UPI Circulars, the UPI Mechanism has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under ASBA) for applications by IBs through Designated Intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the SEBI UPI Circulars have introduced the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 1, 2019, until March 31, 2019, or floating of five main board public issues, whichever was later. Subsequently, the timeline for implementation of Phase I was extended till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, an II had the option to submit the ASBA Form with any of the Designated Intermediary and use his/her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days.

Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019 and was to initially continue for a period of three months or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Subsequently, it was decided to extend the timeline for implementation of Phase II until March 31, 2020. Further, as per SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, the current Phase II of Unified Payments Interface with Application Supported by Blocked Amount is continued till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the ASBA Form by IIs through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI payment mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing continues to be six Working Days during this phase.

Phase III: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023 and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023, vide SEBI circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 ("T+3 Notification"). In this phase, the time duration from public offer closure to listing has been reduced from six Working Days to three Working Days. The Offer shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Notification as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

This Issue will be made under UPI Phase III of the UPI Circular.

All SCSBs offering the facility of making application in public issues shall also provide facility to make application using UPI. Our Company will be required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a sponsor bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchange and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and/or payment instructions of the Individual Bidders using the UPI Mechanism.

Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circulars include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalized. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalized under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints, the relevant SCSB as well as the Book Running Lead Manager will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

For further details, refer to the General Information Document available on the website of the Stock Exchange and the Book Running Lead Manager.

The processing fees for applications made by UPI Bidders using the UPI Mechanism may be released to the remitter banks (SCSBs) only after such banks make an application as prescribed in Annexure I of SEBI circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2022/51 dated April 20, 2022 and provide a written confirmation on compliance with SEBI circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/P/CIR/2021/570 dated June 2, 2021 read with SEBI circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2021/2480/1/M dated March 16, 2021.

Further, pursuant to SEBI circular no.
